WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for maintaining in Repair the Military and Parliamentary Roads and Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland, and also certain Ferry Piers and Shipping Quays erected by the Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges, the said Commissioners were authorized to notify to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of any County to which any of the aforesaid Roads and Bridges are situated, that the County Assessment levied by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal Two Acts made in the Fifty fourth and Fifty fifth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for maintaining and keeping in Repair certain Roads and Bridges in Scotland, to provide more effectually for that Purpose, and for Regulation of Ferries on Scotland, together with the Parliamentary Allowance thereby given, is insufficient for the due Repair and Maintenance of the said Roads and Bridges situated in such County, and thereupon requiring the said Heritors and Commissioners of Supply to meet and assemble for the Purpose of considering whether they are willing and desirous further to increase such County Assessment, or that Toll Gates shall be erected and Tolls levied in aid of such County Assessment, or in lieu of such County Assessment, or that the County Assessment shall not be increased, and that no such Toll Gates shall be erected: And Whereas the above mentioned Notification was accordingly made by the Parliamentary Commissioners to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Inverness, to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Ross (and of three Parts of the Counties of Cromarty and Nairn locally situate therein), to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland, and to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness: And Whereas the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the said County of Ross (and of those Parts of the Counties of Cromarty and Nairn locally situate therein), at their Meeting of the Twentieth Day of October last (especially holden in consequence of such Notification), agreed upon a Resolution to increase the County Assessment instead of erecting Toll Gates in and about, and subsequently, on the same Day, agreed upon an Amendment of such Resolution thereby agreeing to the erecting of Toll Gates in aid of such Assessment, which Resolution and Amendment thereof not being consistent with each other, cannot be carried into Effect by the Parliamentary Commissioners in Terms of the said Act: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Parliamentary Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized to repeat and renew such Notification to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the said County of Ross, in the Manner specified in the said Act, whereas the said Heritors and Commissioners of Supply shall be summoned to meet accordingly for the Purpose of taking into Consideration such renewed Notification, in so far as to determine whether they are willing and desirous that the County Assessment shall be further increased, so as to defray the total Expence of maintaining in Repair the said Roads and Bridges beyond the Portion of such Expence allotted to the County of Ross for that Purpose out of the Parliamentary Allowance of Five thousand Pounds per Annum; or whether the said Heritors and Commissioners of Supply are willing and desirous that Toll Gates shall be erected and Tolls levied upon any of the Roads or Bridges situated in such County, in aid of the said County Assessment, and that the Resolution agreed upon by the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply, or the Majority of them present at such Meeting, or any Adjournment thereof, shall forthwith be transmitted to the Parliamentary Commissioners, who shall thereupon proceed in the Manner directed by the said first recited Act.

II. And Whereas the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland, at their Meeting of the Twentieth second Day of September last (especially holden in consequence of a Notification under the first recited Act), agreed upon a Resolution to increase the County Assessment to a limited Amount, and for One Year only, therein not fulfilling the Intentions of the said Act, which remains in full Force, and has Continuance for and during the Term of Twenty one Years from the passing thereof, and from thence to the End of the three next Sessions of Parliament: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Parliamentary Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized to repeat and renew such Notification to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the said County of Sutherland, in the Manner specified in the said Act, whereas a Meeting of the said Heritors and Commissioners of Supply shall be summoned accordingly, for the Purpose of taking into Consideration such renewed Notification, in so far as to determine whether it will be fit and

III. And Whereas the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness, at their Meeting of the Thirtieth Day of September last (specially holden in consequence of a Notification under the first recited Act, agreed upon a Resolution, that Toll Gates should be erected and Tolls levied in lieu of the County Assessment: And Whereas in the Opinion of the Parliamentary Commissioners, the Roads and Bridges in the said County of Caithness cannot be maintained in Repair by the Produce of such Tolls, added to the Produce allotted to the County of Caithness, out of the Parliamentary Allowance of Five thousand Pounds, nor therein: Be it therefore further enacted, That the Resolution agreed upon at such Meeting of the Thirtieth Day of September last shall be null and void, and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Parliamentary Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized to repeat and renew such Notification to the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply of the said County of Caithness in the Manner specified in the said Act, whereupon a Meeting of the said Heritors and Commissioners of Supply shall be summoned accordingly, for the Purpose of taking into Consideration such renewed Notification; and that the Resolutions agreed upon by the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply, or the Majority of them present at such Meeting, or any Adjournment thereof, shall forthwith be transmitted to the Parliamentary Commissioners, who shall thereupon proceed in the Manner directed by the said first recited Act.

And Whereas it may become expedient from a Change of Circumstances, during the Term of the said first recited Act, in any of the said Counties of Inverness, Ross, Sutherland and Caithness, to reconsider and alter the Resolution previously agreed upon by the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply at any Meeting specially holden in consequence of any Notification under the said first recited Act or this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Parliamentary Commissioners, upon Application of any One or more of the Heritors or Commissioners of Supply of any County, to enquire and declare the Intention of each Application to the Governor of such County if they shall think fit, together with their own Opinion thereupon, whereupon the Governor shall within Three Months thereafter summon the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply to meet and assemble for the Purpose of taking into Consideration such Notification, and if at such Meeting they shall agree upon any Resolution different from the former Resolution, and if the Parliamentary Commissioners shall thereupon concur in Opinion with the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply that the former Resolution ought to be annulled and superseded by the latter Resolution, such former Resolution shall thenceforth be deemed null and void, and the latter Resolution shall be of full Force and Effect in lieu thereof: Provided nevertheless, that it shall remain liable to be superseded in like Manner, upon subsequent Application and Resolution of the Heritors and Commissioners of Supply to that Effect, if confirmed by the Concurrence of the Parliamentary Commissioners therein.

And in case of Change of Cir-

V. And Whereas in the said first recited Act Part of the annual Parliamentary Allowance of Five thousand Pounds is said to be allotted to six several Counties in aid of the Expence of repairing the Military and Parliamentary Roads and Bridges therein respectively situate, but the said Allowance is not particularly specified and set forth: Be it therefore enacted, That the Sum of One thousand and sixty six Pounds shall be and shall be allotted in aid of the Expence of the repairing such Roads and Bridges in the County of Inverness, the Sum of Four hundred and thirty eight Pounds in the County of Ross, the Sum of Two hundred and twenty two Pounds in like Manner to the County of Sutherland, and the Sum of One hundred and fifteen Pounds in like Manner to the County of Caithness, besides which the Parliamentary Commissioners shall defray the entire Expence of Inspection and Management out of the said annual Allowance of Five thousand Pounds.

charged with Duty upon or for One hundred Barrels of Strong Beer at the least in the Year preceding the Termination of such former Licence, or so in Proportion for such Part of such preceding Year for which such former Licence shall have been taken out, but that every such Brewer who shall first take out and pay for such Retail Licence as aforesaid shall be at Liberty to retail Beer, under and according to the Provisions of this Act, from the Time of taking out such Licence, notwithstanding such Brewer shall then newly begin and set up the Trade of a Brewer, or shall not in any previous Year have brewed or been charged with Duty upon or for so much Beer as would make the Licence Duty to which such Brewer would be liable amount to Two Pounds, any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

X. Provis of former Acts relating to Licences to be taken out by Brewers and Venders of Beer, Spirits and Wine, (which hereby amended) to extend to this Act.

XII. And he it further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Exceptions, Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things which in or by any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Licences to Common Brewers, or for the brewing of Beer for Sale, or to the Retail of Beer, Cyder or Perry, or distilled Spirituous Liquors, or Strong Waters, or Foreign Wine respectively, in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act, are contained, provided, settled or established for or in respect of such Licences, and for preventing, directing and punishing Frauds relating thereto, or for granting or regulating such Licences respectively, on the brewing of Beer, or the Retail or Sale of the said Liquors respectively, and not being expressly altered, repealed, changed or controlled by this Act, or not being repugnant to any of the Matters, Clauses, Provisions or Regulations in this Act contained, shall be and continue in full force, and be duly observed, practiced, applied and put in Execution throughout Great Britain, in and for the said several Duties by this Act imposed, and for preventing, deterring and punishing Frauds relating thereto, and for granting of such Licences respectively as aforesaid, and for regulating the brewing of Beer, and the Retail and Sale of the said Liquors respectively, so far as the same are applicable thereto respectively, and not hereby repealed or altered, as fully and effectually, to all intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Exceptions, Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things had been expressly inserted and re-enacted in this Act.

When Common Inns, Ale, or Licensed or other Places, the Spirit Licences shall expire on the succeeding Quarter Day.

XIV. And whereas Licences to keep Common Inns, Alehouses or Victualling Houses, are in some Parts of Great Britain granted by the Justices and Magistrates at other Parts of the Year than in the Month of September in each Year, and certain Licences to retail Beer, Spirits and Foreign Wine respectively, in such Common Inns, Alehouses or Victualling Houses, have been granted, and are now in force; Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to alter or affect any Licence duly granted and now in force, to retail or sell Beer, Spirits or Wine, in any Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House, before the Expiration of the current Year for which each such Licence respectively has been granted, but that in every such Case all such Licences to retail Spirits or Wine in any such Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House, shall, on their previous Expiration, be renewed for such Part only of the current Year, for which such Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House shall be so authorized to be kept and continued; and that the Commissioners of Excise, and other Persons authorized or appointed by them, and the several Collectors of Excise, are hereby authorized to receive from the several Pennes liable to pay the same, a proportionate Part of the Duties payable on every such Licence, and to grant such Licences for such Proportionate Part of the Year between the Times when any such Licence shall expire, and the Remembrance of the Year for which such Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House shall be so duly authorized to be kept and continued; and that in every future Year, every Excise Licence to sell Beer, Spirits or Wine, in any Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House duly authorized to be kept, shall be granted for the Year ending on the next succeeding Excise Quarter Day after the Expiration of the Year for which such Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House shall be authorized to be kept, and shall then respectively expire, and be renewed under the Provisions of this Act, on the Day of Renewal.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall by any Conviction be disabled from holding or having a Licence to keep, or from keeping a Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House, shall also by such Conviction be disabled from taking out any Excise Licence to sell, and from selling Beer by Retail in any Manner whatsoever; and if any such Person shall, after such Conviction as aforesaid, take out or have any Excise Licence to retail Beer, the same shall be void; and if any such Person shall after such Conviction sell Beer by Retail, he or she so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and in all Cases of Prosecution against any such Person for any Penalty imposed by this Act, a Certificate, among as such, of any such Conviction as aforesaid, shall be taken from the Clerk of the Peace, or Person acting as such, of any such Conviction as aforesaid, shall, on the Trial in such Prosecution, be legal Evidence thereof, which Certificate such Clerk of the Peace or other Person is hereby authorized and required to grant on Demand, without Fee or Reward.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Brewer or Brewers, who shall, within Three Months before the passing this Act, have been charged with Duties on Strong and Table Beer respectively, and shall at the Time of passing this Act be a licensed Brewer or licensed Brewers, carrying on the Trade and Business of a Brewer of Strong and Table Beer respectively, to take out such Licence to retail as aforesaid, and to retail under the Regulations of this Act the Strong Beer by them brewed and charged with Duty, without incurring any Penalty for brewing, or having in Possession, or selling the Table Beer by them brewed, and which shall be charged with Duty, upon Condition nevertheless that every such Brewer shall sell the whole of such Table Beer, and send the same out into Consumption in Casks containing at the least Nine Gallons in every such Cask, and accompanied with a Certificate, the Particulars whereof shall be duly entered as the Counterpart of every such Certificate, in the Certificate Book delivered by the Officer of Excise to and kept by such Brewer; and that if any such Brewer shall not sell the whole of the Table Beer brewed or made by him or her, or which shall come into his or her Possession, or on which such Brewer shall be charged with Duty as and for Table Beer, and at or below the Price of and allowed and limited for Table Beer, from time to time as the same is brewed or made, or shall sell or send out any Part thereof otherwise than in a whole Cask, containing at the least Nine Gallons, or without such Certificate as aforesaid, expressing the Duty in which each such Cask is sent out, and the Name and Place of Residence of such Brewer and Brewers, and of the Person or Persons to whom the same is sold, sent out and delivered, together with the Quantity of the Beer as Table Beer, and the Price at which the same is so sold, sent out and delivered, or shall grant, issue, write or enter any untrue Certificate or Counterpart for or in respect of any such Table Beer; or shall mix with or put any Table Beer Wort or Table Beer into or amongst any Strong Beer Wort or Strong Beer; or shall keep or have any Table Beer in the Place entered by such Brewer or Brewers, under the Regulations of this Act, for the Retail of Beer, every such Brewer shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and upon the Conviction of any such Brewer of any such Offence, the Retail Licence granted to him or her shall be void, and such Brewer shall be wholly disabled from taking out, having or holding any such Retail Licence for the future.

XVII. And Whereas it is expedient that the Duties on Beer should be charged throughout Great Britain by the same Measure; Be it therefore further enacted, That every Thirty six Gallons of Beer, taken either by Gauge or Measure, shall throughout Great Britain be reckoned, accounted and returned by the Officers of Excise for a Barrel of Beer; and the several Rates of Duty imposed in respect of Beer shall be charged thereon accordingly, and so in Proportion for any less Quantity; and no Beer shall be sold by any Brewer, Dealer or Retailer at any other Rate or Quantity for the Barrel than the aforesaid Quantity of Thirty six Gallons.

XVIII. And Whereas by an Act made in the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Years of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for an additional Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, it was amongst other Things enacted, that if any Person or Persons inhabiting in any Market Town, or in any City or Town Corporate, or Parts adjoining to any City or Town Corporate, where there is or shall be a Common Brewhouse, having and lawfully using any private Brewing Vessels for the brewing and making of Beer or Ale, to be spent and consumed in his or their private Families, or shall lend out any of their Brewing Vessels to be made use of by any other Person or Persons, not being of his or their Family, for the brewing of Beer or Ale for the Use of any other Person or Persons, then such Person or Persons shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said Act as is hereinbefore recited; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the same shall be and is hereby repealed.

An Act to repeal certain Acts of His late Majesty, relating to the Wages of Persons employed in the Manufacture of Silk, and of Silk mixed with other Materials. [17th June 1824.]

17th June 1824. WHEREAS by an Act made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to empower the Magistrates therein mentioned to settle and regulate the Wages of Persons employed in the Silk Manufacture within their respective Jurisdictions, it was enacted, that the Wages and Prices for Work of the Journeyman Weavers within the City of London should be settled, regulated and declared by the Lord Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the said City, and in all Places in the County of Middlesex by the Justices of the Peace of the said County, and in all Places within the City and Liberty of Westminster at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden in and for the said City and Liberty, and in all Places within the Liberty of the Tower of London, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden in and for the said Liberty, at their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace respectively; and certain Penalties are by the said Act inflicted on all Master Weavers within any of the said Districts who should give more or less Wages, or pay larger or less Prices, to any of the said Journeyman Weavers for their Work, than should be settled as aforesaid; and also upon all Journeyman Weavers within the Districts aforesaid who should ask, receive or take more or less Wages, or larger or less Prices for their Work, than should be settled by the respective Quarter Sessions as aforesaid; and by the said Act certain other Penalties are also inflicted on all Master Weavers within any of the Districts aforesaid, who should directly or indirectly in any Manner retain or employ any Journeyman Weaver out of or beyond the Limits therein mentioned, with Intent to evade that Act, or who should give, allow or pay to such Journeyman any more or less Wages than should be settled in Manner in the said Act provided; and by the said Act certain other Penalties are also inflicted on any Persons or Persons, being Silk Weavers residing within any of the Districts aforesaid, who should have in his or their Service at any one Time more than Two Apprentices: And Whereas by an Act made in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for extending the Provisions of an Act made in the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty, intitled 'An Act to empower the Magistrates therein mentioned to settle and regulate the Wages of Persons employed in the Silk Manufacture within their respective Jurisdictions; to Manufactures of Silk mixed with other Materials, and for the more effectual Punishment of Masters and Owners of Silk gardens and embroiled by Persons employed in the Manufacture thereof'; it is enacted and declared, that the Lord Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the City of London, and the Justices of the Peace within their respective Jurisdictions throughout the several and respective Districts in the said Act of the Thirtieth Year of His late Majesty mentioned, should from time to time settle, regulate, order and declare the Wages and Prices of Work of the Journeyman Weavers working within their respective Jurisdictions in any Manufacture of Silk mixed or wrought up with any other Materials, in the like Manner as they are respectively authorized and empowered by the said recited Act of the Thirtieth Year of His late Majesty to settle, regulate, order and declare the same in the Manufacture of Silk only; and that the said therein recited Act, and all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Regulations, Restrictions, Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures and other Matters and Things therein contained, should extend, and be deemed, adjudged and construed to extend, to all Persons employed in or about any of the Manufactures of Silk mixed or wrought up with any other Materials within the respective Districts in the said Act mentioned, in as full and ample Manner as they are by the said therein recited Act declared to extend to the several and respective Persons therein mentioned: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act in amend Two Acts of the Thirteenth and Twenty second Years of His present Majesty, relating to the Wages of Journeymen employed in the Silk Manufacture, the Provisions made by the said recited Acts of the Thirteenth and Twenty second Years of His late Majesty for settling and regulating the Wages and Prices of Work of the Journeymen Weavers in the Manufacture of Silk, and in the Manufacture of Silk raised or wrought up with any other Materials, within the Cities of London and Westminster and the County of Middlesex, are declared to extend to Journeymen Weavers employed in the said Manufactures: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of the Silk Manufacture, it is enacted, that the Wages of Journeymen Silk Weavers, within the City of Dublin, and the adjacent Liberties for the Distance of Two Miles and a Half round from the Centre of Dublin, should be regulated, settled and declared by the Dublin Society; and certain Penalties are by the said Act imposed on any Master Silk Weaver within the aforesaid District who shall give more or less Wages, or pay larger or smaller Prices, to any of the Journeymen Weavers aforesaid, for their Work, than shall be settled or allowed as aforesaid; and by the same Act certain Penalties are also imposed on any Journeymen Weaver or Weavers, within the District aforesaid, who should not, receive or take more or less Wages, or larger or smaller Prices for their Work, than should be settled as aforesaid, or who should enter into any Combination to raise the Wages or Prices of said Work, or for that Purpose should decoy, solicit or intimidate any Journeymen or Journeymen Weavers within the District aforesaid; and it is by the same Act further enacted, that the Dublin Society should superintend the Silk Manufacture, and make such Orders, Bye Laws and Regulations touching all Matters pertaining thereto, as should appear to them useful and necessary, and that all Persons concerned in the said Manufacture should obey all such Orders of the Dublin Society: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of the Silk Manufacture": And Whereas an Act passed in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to continue an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of the Silk Manufacture", by which last mentioned Acts the said Act of the Nineteenth and Twentieth George Third was continued in Force: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty one, certain Acts made in the Parliament of Ireland, for the better Regulation of the Silk Manufacture: And Whereas the Provisions of the said recited Acts have not been found beneficial to the Persons employed in the Silk Manufacture, but on the contrary the Regulations and Restrictions contained in the said Acts have been found in their Operation venious and injurious, and it is therefore expedient that the said Acts should be wholly repealed: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said several recited Acts, and every Clause, Provision, Regulation, Restriction, Fine, Penalty, Forfeiture, Matter and Thing therein respectively contained, shall be, and the same is and are hereby severally and respectively repealed. III. And be it further enacted, That in any Case in which a Lunatic or dangerous Mad, whose Sentences, by reason of the Lunacy of such Person, cannot be executed, shall be by the Order of Two Justices confined in any Lunatic Asylum, it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices acting in and for the County in which such Asylum shall be situated, at any Time to examine into the legal Settlement of such Lunatic or dangerous Mad; and if satisfactory Evidence can be obtained as to such Settlement, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to adjudge the last legal Settlement of such Lunatic to be in such Parish or Place as may on such Evidence appear to him to be the Place of such legal Settlement; and forthwith to make an Order on the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place to pay such Weekly Sum to the Treasurer of such Asylum as shall have been fixed by the Visiting Justices as a Rate for the Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing and Care of Lunatics confined in such Asylum.

20 G. 3. c. 84. § 2.

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for augmenting Parochial Stipends in certain Cases in Scotland, [a] by which it was enacted, that as soon as conveniently might be after the passing thereof, the Clerks of the different Presbyteries within Scotland should make up Accounts of the different Pseachers within each Presbytery, the Stipends of a which Pseacher did not extend to their yearly Amount to the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, and which could not be augmented to that Extent under the Laws then in force: and upon receiving such Accounts, the same were directed to be taken into Consideration by the Lords of Council and Session, as Commissioners for Plantation of Kirks and Valuation of Tithes, and a List or Schedule should thereupon be made up, under their Direction and Authority, of all such Stipends which from the Causes mentioned in the said recited Act could not be augmented to the annual Amount or Value of One hundred and fifty Pounds under the Laws then in force, specifying the Amount of such Stipend, in Money, Grain or other Articles in which the same was payable, and the Rate at which such Grain or other Article, if not in use to be paid in Kind, were convertible into

Money, and if in use to be paid in Kind, the Value thereof on an Average of the last Five Years preceding the passing of said Act; and as soon as the said Lords of Council and Session, as Commissioners aforesaid, shall have determined with respect to the Stipend or Stipends of any Minister or Ministers which ought to be augmented under the Authority of the said recited Act, the said Lords of Council and Session, as Commissioners aforesaid, shall cause a List or Schedule of such Stipend or Stipends to be made out in Manner directed by the said recited Act, specifying the Sum necessary for augmenting each such Stipend to the annual Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, and an Extract or certified Copy thereof, made out in the Manner therein directed, should be transmitted to the Barons of Exchequer, who should issue their Precept or Warrant, addressed to His Majesty's Receiver General and Paymaster for Scotland, to each of the Ministers of the respective Parishes mentioned in such List or Schedule, for Payment to such Ministers of the annual Sum which according to such List or Schedule is necessary for augmenting his Stipend to the annual Amount or Value of One hundred and fifty Pounds, to be paid to him at the Terms or Times therein directed during his Incumbency: And Whereas by the Alteration in the Price of Grain and other Circumstances, most of the Stipends included in the present Lists have been considerably reduced below the said Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, and it is expedient that the Amount of such Stipends should from time to time be reconsidered, so as to secure to the Incumbents of such Parishes a Stipend of One hundred and fifty Pounds each at all Times, as nearly as may be: And Whereas it is also expedient that some additional Provision should be made in certain Cases for such of the Parochial Clergy of Scotland as cannot, according to Law, be provided with a Manse or Glebe: And Whereas an annual Sum not exceeding Two thousand Pounds, in addition to the Sum provided by the before recited Act, will be sufficient to carry these Purposes into effect: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, and from time to time once in Five Years, or the Expiration of such successive Five Years in all Times hereafter, the Clerks to the different Presbyteries within Scotland shall make out Accounts in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, of the different Parishes within each Presbytery, the Stipends of which Parishes do not as the Time expired at their yearly Amount or Value in the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling, and which cannot be augmented to that Extent under the Laws at present, or to be then in Force, by reason of the Causes mentioned in the said recited Act, which Accounts shall specify the Amount of such such Stipend in Money, Grain or other Articles, according to an Average of the last Five Years preceding the Date of making out the same respectively, and the said Accounts shall be transmitted to the Treas. Clerk, or Principal Clerk of the Lords of Council and Session, as Commissioners for Plantation of Kirks and Valuation of Tithes, who shall thereupon proceed in the Manner directed by the said recited Act to take the same into Consideration, and to adjust and settle the same; and as soon as the said Lords of Council and Session, as Commissioners aforesaid, shall have adjusted and settled any such List or Schedule, or shall have ascertained the Sum necessary for augmenting each such Stipend, in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, as often as the same is required to be done by this Act, to the annual Amount or Value of One hundred and fifty Pounds, the said Lords of Council and Session, as Commissioners aforesaid, shall cause a List or Schedule, or List or Schedule, to be made out in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, specifying the Sum necessary for augmenting each such Stipend to the annual Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, and every such List or Schedule shall be recorded and transmitted in the Manner directed by the said recited Act; and the said Barons of Exchequer shall issue their Precept or Warrant, addressed to His Majesty's said Receiver General and Paymaster for Scotland, to each of the Ministers mentioned in any List or Schedule made up under the Authority of this Act, for Payment to such Minister of the annual Sum which, according to such List or Schedule, shall appear to be necessary for augmenting his Stipend to the annual Amount or Value of One hundred and fifty Pounds, to be paid him during his Incumbency, and to his Successor, at the Terms or Times and in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, unless and until an Alteration shall take place in the Manner hereinafter directed.

II. And Whereas in some Parishes in Scotland the Ministers thereof have small Stipends, and are not provided with a Manse or a Glebe, and it is reasonable that in such Cases an additional Stipend should be paid to such Ministers, as some Compensation for the Want thereof: Be it therefore enacted, That as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, the Clerks to the different Presbyteries within Scotland shall make up a List or Lists of any Parish or Parishes within each Presbytery the Minister whereof is without a Manse and Glebe, and of any Parish or Parishes the Minister whereof is without a Manse, and of any Parish or Parishes the Minister whereof is without a Glebe, the Stipend of any such Minister shall be under the Amount or Value of Two hundred Pounds per Annum; and every such List shall be transmitted to the said Treas. Clerk or Principal Clerk to the said Lords of Council and Session as Commissioners aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That after such List shall have been received by such Treas. or Principal Clerk, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lords of Council and Session as Commissioners aforesaid, upon the Application of any of the Ministers aforesaid, or of the Procurator of the Church on Behalf of the Whole, to enquire into the Circumstances of the Case, and if they shall find that the Stipend in any Parish is under the annual Amount or Value of Two hundred Pounds, and that the Minister cannot be provided with a Manse and a Glebe, or with a Manse or a Glebe, as the Case may be, they are hereby directed to cause a List or Schedule of every such Parish where the Minister cannot be

IV. And Whereas less the Alteration of Circumstances it may from time to time happen, that the Sum to be allowed to some of such Ministers to make up their Stipends to the Sum allowed by this Act, may fall below their Summ respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That Once in every Five Years in all Time hereafter, and at the Expiration of Five Years from the Date of such such Transmission, the Clerks to the different Presbyteries in Scotland shall make out Accounts of the Amounts of the different Stipends to which Additions shall have been made, as directed by this Act; and whenever such Clerks shall find any such Stipend to be Five Pounds per Annum less than the Sum allowed pursuant to this Act, according to the Average Prices of Grain in the County in which such Parish shall be situated for the Five Years immediately preceding, the said Clerks shall transmit an Account of such Stipends to the Tithed Clerk or principal Clerk of the said Lords of Council and Session as Commissioners aforesaid, who shall thereupon proceed to increase each such Stipend, so as to make the Sum to be thereafter allowed amount as nearly as may be to the Sum allowed under this Act, according to the Average Prices of Grain for Five Years preceding the Date of such Transmission of Accounts respectively, and as soon as the said Lords of Council and Session shall have adjusted and settled or ascertained the Sum necessary so to be allowed according to such Direction, as the Case may be, as often as the same is directed by this Act, the said Lords of Council and Session shall cause a List or Schedule, Lists or Schedules, to be made out in the Manner directed by the said recited Act and this Act, specifying the Sum thereto to be added, and an Alteration in the Amount of such Sum shall take place in the Manner directed by this Act; and every such List or Schedule shall be recorded, and thereafter transmitted, in the Manner above directed in the Case of the first Allowance under this Act; and the said Baron of Exchequer shall issue their Precept or Warrant to His Majesty's said Receiver General and Paymaster for Scotland, to each of the Ministers mentioned in any such List or Schedule, for Payment to such Minister of the annual Sum which, according to such List or Schedule, is to be paid to him during his Incumbency, and so to his Successor, at the Terms or Times and in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, unless and until an Alteration shall take place in the Manner directed by this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Augmentations of Stipends authorized to be made by this Act, shall not exceed in any One Year the Sum of Two thousand Pounds Sterling over and above and in addition to any Balance of the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds granted by the said recited Act, remaining unapplied for the Purposes thereof.

VI. And be it enacted, That all the Directions given by the said recited Act, with respect to the Manner and Things thereby appointed to be done, shall be observed and followed in executing this Act, as far as such Directions are not inconsistent with the same.

VII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His said late Majesty, intituled *An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Sums out of the respective Consolidated Funds of Great Britain and Ireland, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in the Session of Parliament, a Sum of Ten thousand Pounds was granted to His Majesty to make Provision for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy of the established Church of Scotland, to be issued and appropriated pursuant to the Provisions of an Act passed or to be passed for that Purpose: And Whereas, by an Act passed in the Fifty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled *An Act for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, a further Sum of Ten thousand Pounds was granted for a similar Purpose, to be issued and appropriated in a similar Manner: And Whereas, by another Act, passed in the Fifty ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled *An Act for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in the Session of Parliament, a further Sum of Ten thousand Pounds was granted for a similar Purpose, to be issued and appropriated in a similar Manner: And Whereas there Three several Sums of Ten thousand Pounds being no longer required for the Purposes for which they were granted: Be it enacted, That so much of the said Acts as authorize the issue of the said several Sums of Ten thousand Pounds, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

C A P. LXXIV.

An Act for ascertaining and establishing Uniformity of Weights and Measures. [17th June 1824.]

WHEREAS it is necessary for the Security of Commerce, and for the Good of the Community, that Weights and Measures should be just and uniform: And Whereas notwithstanding it is provided by the Great Charter, that there shall be but one Measure and one Weight throughout the Realm, and by the Treaty of Union between England and Scotland, that the same Weights and Measures should be used throughout Great Britain as were then established in England, yet different Weights and Measures, some larger, and some less, are still in use in various Places throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the true Measure of the present Standards is not very known, which is the Cause of great Confusion and of manifold Frauds: For the Remedy and Prevention of these Evils for the future, and to the End that certain Standards of Weights and Measures should be established throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, the Straight Line or Distance between the Centres of the Two Points in the Gold Studds in the Straight Brass Rod, now in the Custody of the Clerk of the House of Commons, whereas the Words and Figures "Standard Yard, 1760," are engraven, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be the original and genuine Standard of that Measure of Length or least Extension called a Yard; and that the same Straight Line or Distance between the Centres of the said Two Points in the said Gold Studds in the said Brass Rod, the Brass being at the Temperature of Sixty two Degrees by Fahrenheit's Thermometer, shall be and is hereby designated the "Imperial Standard-Yard," and shall be and is hereby declared to be the Unit or only Standard Measure of Extension, wheresoever or whereby all other Measures of Extension whatsoever, whether the same be Road, superficial or solid, shall be derived, computed and ascertained, and that all Measures of Length shall be taken in Parts or Multiples, or certain Proportions of the said Standard Yard; and that One twelfth Part of the said Standard Yard shall be a Foot, and the Twelfth Part of such Foot shall be an Inch; and that the Pole or Peck in Length shall contain Five such Yards and a Half, the Furlong Two hundred and twenty such Yards, and the Mile One thousand seven hundred and sixty such Yards.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Superficial Measures shall be computed and ascertained by the said Standard Yard, or by certain Parts, Multiples or Proportions thereof; and that the Reed of Land shall contain One thousand two hundred and ten Square Yards, according to the said Standard Yard; and that the Acre of Land shall contain Four thousand eight hundred and forty such Square Yards, being One hundred and sixty Square Poles, Poles or Rods.

III. And Whereas it is expedient that the said Standard Yard, if lost, destroyed, defaced or otherwise injured, should be restored of the same Length, by Reference to some invariable natural Standard: And Whereas it has been ascertained by the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty to inquire into the Subject of Weights and Measures, that the said Yard hereby declared to be the Imperial Standard Yard, when compared with a Pendulum vibrating Seconds at Mean Time in the Latitude of London, in a Vacuum at the Level of the Sea, is in the Proportion of Thirty six Inches to Thirty nine Inches, and One thousand three hundred and seventy three ten thousandths Parts of an Inch: Be it therefore enacted and declared, That if at any Time hereafter the said Imperial Standard Yard shall be lost, or shall be in any Manner destroyed, defaced or otherwise injured, it shall and may be restored by making, under the Direction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, for the Time being, a new Standard Yard, bearing the same Proportion to such Pendulum as aforesaid, as the said Imperial Standard Yard bears to such Pendulum.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, the Standard Brass Weight of One Pound Troy Weight, made in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty eight, now in the Custody of the Clerk of the House of Commons, shall shall be and the same is hereby declared to be the original and genuine Standard Measure of Weight, and that such Brass Weight shall be and is hereby designated the Imperial Standard Troy Pound, and shall be and the same is hereby declared to be the Unit or only Standard Measure of Weight, from which all other Weights shall be derived, excepted and notwithstanding that One twelfth Part of the said Troy Pound shall be an Ounce: and that One twentieth Part of such Ounce shall be a Pennyweight: and that One twenty fourth Part of such Pennyweight shall be a Grain: so that Two thousand seven hundred and sixty such Grains shall be a Troy Pound, and that Seven thousand eight hundred and eighty eight such Grains shall be an Ounce Avoirdupois, and that One sixteenth Part of the said Pound Avoirdupois shall be an Ounce Avoirdupois, and that One sixteenth Part of such Ounce shall be a Dram.

An Act to decrease the Duty on Cocoa Nuts imported; to exempt certain Goods from Payment of Auction Duties; to provide that the Parish of St. Peter Parva shall be under the Inspection of the Head Office of Excise; and to amend certain Laws of Excise relating to Malsters in Ireland; to the Drawback on Beer exported from Great Britain; and to the Duty on Draining Tiles. [17th Jan 1824.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties on Cocoa Nuts imported into any Part of the United Kingdom should be decreased: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, the several Duties of Customs payable on Cocoa Nuts imported into any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall cease and determine; and that in lieu of the said Duties there be granted, raised, levied and paid to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, on Cocoa Nuts imported into any Part of the United Kingdom, the Duties following: that is to say, upon all Cocoa Nuts, the Growth or Produce of any British Colony, Possession or Territory, the Sum of One Shilling for every Pound Weight thereof, and upon all Cocoa Nuts of the Growth or Produce of any other Country or Place, the Sum of One Shilling and Three Pence for every Pound Weight thereof; and that the said several Duties shall be collected, raised, levied, paid and applied in such and the like Manner, and under such and the like Regulations, as the several Duties of Excise and Customs on Cocoa Nuts imported into Great Britain or Ireland, and hereby repealed, were collected, raised, levied, paid and applied under and by virtue of any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act.

And Whereas it is expedient to exempt certain Goods, Wares, Merchandise and Effects of the Portuguese Dominions, in certain Cases, from the Duty on Goods sold by Auction: Be it therefore enacted, enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Goods, Wares, Merchandises and Effects, which under the Provisions of an Act made in the Fifth first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for carrying into Effect the Provisions of a Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation, concluded between His Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, shall be imported into any Part of the United Kingdom in any Ship or Vessel built in any of the Territories or Dominions in the said Act mentioned or comprehended as Ports there, and being owned and navigated as in the said Act is expressed, shall and may be sold by Auction free of the Duty imposed by Law on Goods and Effects sold by Auction: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to authorize the Sale of any such Goods or Effects free of the said Duty, unless on the First Sale of such Goods or Effects by or for the Account of the original Importer thereof, by whom the same were entered at the Custom House at the Port of Importation, nor unless such Sale shall be made within Twelve Months next after the Time when such Goods or Effects shall have been so imported.

III. And Whereas by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries and Treasuries in Capes and by Knights Service, and Prerogative; and for setting a Breach upon His Majesty in law therein; it is amongst other Things enacted, that all Parts of the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark, and the several Suburbs thereof, and Parishes within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, should be under the immediate Care, Inspection and Management of the Head Office of Excise in London: And Whereas, since the passing of the said Act, the Parish of Saint Pancras in the County of Middlesex is greatly increased in Buildings and Inhabitants, and is contiguous to the Parishes within the said Bills of Mortality; He it therefore enacted, That the said Parish of Saint Pancras shall, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, be deemed and taken, and is hereby declared and enacted to be under the immediate Care, Inspection and Management of the said Head Office of Excise; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And Whereas the Amount of the Duties payable in Ireland upon Licences to Malsters is considerably greater than the Amount of Duties on the like Licences in Great Britain; and it is expedient that such Duties should be assimilated: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty five, the several Duties upon any Licence to any Person to sell Malt, the Party selling the same not being licensed to make Malt, and which are made payable by an Act made in the Fifth fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, amongst other Things for granting Duties of Excise upon Licences to Persons dealing in Excisable Commodities in Ireland, shall cease and determine; and that in lieu of such Duties the following Duties and no more shall be raised, levied and paid to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, being reduced Duties, and equal in Amount to the Duties payable in Great Britain upon such Licences; that is to say, upon all Licences to be taken out by Malsters or Makers of Malt in Ireland for Sale or for the Purpose of being used in any Brewery or Distillery, for every such Licence, to be paid by every such Malster or Maker of Malt, if the Quantity of Malt made by such Malster or Maker of Malt within the Year ending the Fifth Day of January in each Year previous to taking out the Licence shall not exceed Fifty Quarters, the Sum of Seven Shillings and Sixpence; if the same shall exceed Fifty Quarters and shall not exceed One hundred Quarters, the Sum of Fifteen Shillings; if the same shall exceed One hundred Quarters and shall not exceed One hundred and fifty Quarters, the Sum of One Pound Two Shillings and Sixpence; if the same shall exceed One hundred and fifty Quarters and shall not exceed Two hundred Quarters, the Sum of One Pound Ten Shillings; if the same shall exceed Two hundred Quarters and shall not exceed Two hundred and fifty Quarters, the Sum of One Pound Seventeen Shillings and Sixpence; if the same shall exceed Two hundred and fifty Quarters and shall not exceed Three hundred Quarters, the Sum of Two Pounds Five Shillings; if the same shall exceed Three hundred Quarters and shall not exceed Three hundred and fifty Quarters, the Sum of Two Pounds Twelve Shillings and Sixpence; if the same shall exceed Three hundred and fifty Quarters and shall not exceed Four hundred Quarters, the Sum of Three Pounds; if the same shall exceed Four hundred Quarters and shall not exceed Four hundred and fifty Quarters, the Sum of Three Pounds Seven Shillings and Sixpence; if the same shall exceed Four hundred and fifty Quarters and shall not exceed Five hundred Quarters, the Sum of Three Pounds Fifteen Shillings; if the same shall exceed Five hundred Quarters and shall not exceed Five hundred and fifty Quarters, the Sum of Four Pounds Two Shillings and Sixpence; and if the same shall exceed Five hundred and fifty Quarters, the Sum of Four Pounds Ten Shillings; and that there shall be paid by every Person in Ireland who shall first become a Malster or Maker of Malt for Sale or for the Purpose of being used in any Brewery or Distillery, for every such Licence the Sum of Seven Shillings and Sixpence: and that within Ten Days after the Fifth Day of January next after the taking out such Licence such further additional Sum shall be paid by every such Person as, with the said Sum of Seven Shillings and Sixpence, shall amount to the Duty required to be paid according to the Quantity of Malt made in the preceding Year; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty five in lieu of the Duties payable in Ireland under the said recited Act upon any Licence to any Person in Ireland to sell Malt, the Party selling the same not being licensed to make Malt, there shall be raised, levied and paid to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the Sum of Two Pounds, and no more.

Goods of the Territories and Dominions comprehended under 21 G. 3. c. 25. exempt from Auction Duty.

[17th June 1824.]

WHEREAS the Corps of the Chancellery of the Cathedral Church of Connor, in the Diocese of Connor, consists of the Rectories of Milltown otherwise Ballyvaughan, Scot's Island otherwise Spigitown otherwise Ballyvaughan, Caffaghina otherwise Caffaghina, Rossona, Longfield otherwise Longfield, and Treanacross otherwise Glencora, all situate, lying and being in the County of Antrim, and to the said Chancellery perpetually reserved and appropriated; and that the Chancellors for the Time being have received the Rectorial Tithes of the said Parishes and Rectories, the present Income whereof taken together, as listed by the Reverend William Ford D.D. the present Chancellor of the said Diocese of Connor, during his Incumbency, is Eight hundred and fifty Pounds per Year or thereabouts, but which are of considerably greater annual Value, as hereafter is mentioned: And Whereas the Corps of the Archdeaconry of the said Diocese of Connor consists of the Rectories of Bally, Ballypaul, Droney, Donaghy and Kilbride, all situate, lying and being in the said County of Antrim, to the said Archdeaconry perpetually annexed and appropriated; and that the Archdeacons of Connor for the Time being have received the Rectorial Tithes of the said last mentioned Parishes or Rectories, the present Income whereof, when taken together, is received by the Reverend Anthony Ford D.D. the present Archdeacon of the said Diocese of Connor, during his Incumbency, is Six hundred Pounds per Year or thereabouts, but which are of considerably greater annual Value, as hereafter is also mentioned; And Whereas the Corps of the Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Connor consists of the Rectories of Ballymore and Dunbar, both in the said County of Down, thereto perpetually annexed and appropriated; and that the Reverend Richard Spence Clerk, the present Prebendary of the said Cathedral Church of Connor, and his Predecessors, Successors, have uniformly received the Tithes, Great and Small, of the said Parish of Ballymore, and the Rectorial Tithes of the said Parish or Rectory of Dunbar; the present Income whereof, taken together, as received by the said Richard Spence, the present Prebendary, is Eight hundred Pounds yearly or thereabouts, but which are of greater annual Value, as hereinafter is mentioned; And Whereas each of the said several and respective Rectories or Parishes as appropriated as aforesaid to the Chancellor, Archbishop and Prebendary of the said Diocese of Connor respectively, save the said Parish of Ballymore, have within these Vicarages existed, and the Chancellor and Archdeacons have not either of them the actual Cure of Souls within the said Parishes or Rectories so appropriated to their Dignities, or any of them, except in the Parish of Ballymore, the actual Cure being in the respective Vicars; but the Prebendary has the actual Cure of Souls in the said Parish of Ballymore, the same being an entire Rectory; And Whereas the Vicarial Tithes of the before named several and respective Parishes, in which it is heretofore stated that there are Vicarages endowed, belong to and are received by their respective Vicars; but several of the same Vicarages being of considerable yearly Value, the Prebendaries of the Right Reverend Richard Mead Doctor in Leinster, the present Lord Bishop of Down and Connor, in order to provide for the suitable Maintenance of the Vicars having the actual Cure of Souls, have been under the Necessity, from time to time of forming Episcopal Unions of some of these Vicarages; and accordingly the Vicarages of Malina otherwise Ballymore, and of Saint Malina otherwise Sigston otherwise Malina otherwise Ballymore, are at present so united under one Incumbent, who receives the Vicarial Tithes of such Union, the present Value whereof is less than One hundred Pounds a Year; and the Vicarages of Colfagh otherwise Colfagh and Barrow, are in like Manner united under one Incumbent, who receives the Vicarial Tithes of the Union, the present Value whereof is Seventy five Pounds per Year or thereabouts; and the Vicarages of Loughale otherwise Loughale and Armagh, are in like Manner united under one Incumbent, who receives the Vicarial Tithes of such Union, the present Value whereof is One hundred and fifty Pounds a Year or thereabouts, but the said Vicarage of Loughale is of very inconsiderable Value, and the Vicarage of Trohan otherwise Gleanna, being of very small Value, it was found necessary to unite it especially with another Vicarage in the said Diocese called Treppingharter, and the same are now united under one Incumbent; and the said last mentioned Union, although augmented from Primate Butler's Fund, does not amount in present Value to more than One hundred Pounds a Year, and the Vicarial Tithes of the aforesaid Parish of Billy are of the present annual Value of Two hundred Pounds or thereabouts; and the said Vicarage of Ballygale, the Vicarial Tithes whereof do not exceed in Value Twenty two Pounds yearly, has been and is especially united to the Inappropriate Curacy of Ballymore in the said County of Down, under one Incumbent, the yearly Value of which last mentioned Union, including an Augmentation from Primate Butler's Fund, does not now exceed Eighty five Pounds yearly; and the Vicarages of the said Parishes of Dowry and Kilbride are especially united under one Incumbent, and the Value of the said last mentioned Union does not exceed Three hundred Pounds a Year; and the annual Value of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Dunbar is One hundred Pounds or thereabouts; and the annual Value of the said several and respective Rectories of Malina otherwise Ballymore, Saint Malina otherwise Sigston otherwise Ballymore, Colfagh, Loughale, Barrow, Trohan otherwise Gleanna, Armagh, Billy, Ballygale, Dowry, Kilbride, Ballymore and Dunbar, are as follows; that is to say, Malina otherwise Ballymore, Three hundred Pounds or thereabouts; Saint Malina otherwise Sigston otherwise Ballymore, Three hundred and fifty Pounds or thereabouts; Colfagh, Four hundred Pounds or thereabouts; Loughale, Four hundred Pounds or thereabouts; Barrow, Two hundred Pounds or thereabouts; Trohan otherwise Gleanna, from Seventy Pounds to One hundred Pounds or thereabouts; Armagh, One hundred and sixty Pounds or thereabouts; Billy, Three hundred and thirty Pounds, or thereabouts; Ballygale, One hundred Pounds or thereabouts; Dowry, Two hundred and fifty Pounds or thereabouts; Kilbride, Two hundred and fifty Pounds or thereabouts; Ballymore, One thousand two hundred Pounds or thereabouts; and Dunbar, Two hundred Pounds or thereabouts; And Whereas the Lord Bishop of Down and Connor for the Time being is the Patron, not only of the aforesaid Chancellorship, Archbishopric and Prebendary, but of all and every the Vicarages heretofore mentioned; And Whereas it will be highly beneficial to the Church Establishment of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, that the Rectorial Tithes of all the said several and respective Parishes or Rectories, as so aforesaid appropriated to the Chancellorship of the said Cathedral Church of Connor, save and except the said Rectory or Parish of Barrow, shall be vested in the respective Vicars of the said Parishes (save as aforesaid) from and after the Death or Removal of the said William Ford, the present Chancellor; and for that Purpose, that the said last mentioned Rectories and Rectorial Tithes, save as aforesaid, shall be disappropriated, demitted and divorced from and out of the Chancellorship of the said Cathedral Church, and annexed and united to the Vicarages of the said respective last mentioned to be disappropriated Parishes or Rectories, from and after the Death or Removal of the said William Ford, the present Chancellor; WHEREAS the Parish of Kilmoren, in the County and Diocese of Dublin, has been episcopally united to and forms a Part of the Parish or Union of Bray in the County of Wicklow, and is situated at a considerable and inconvenient Distance, the nearest Part being Four Miles, and other Parts Six Miles, from the Parish Church of Bray, the only Church of the said Union; and it is therefore expedient that the said Parish should be separated and disannexed from the Parish or Vicarage of Bray: And Whereas the said Parish of Kilmoren adjoins to the Parish of Kilgobbin, in the County and Diocese of Dublin, and the Globe Lands and Glebe House of the Perpetual Curate or Minister of the said Parish of Kilgobbin are situated within the Bounds and Limits of the said Parish of Kilmoren: And Whereas there is not any Church in the said Parish of Kilmoren, and the Church of the said Parish of Kilgobbin is small and inconvenient, and much out of Repair, and wholly incapable of accommodating the Protestant Inhabitants of the Parish of Kilgobbin, and cannot be enlarged or repaired by reason of the Decay of its Walls, and of its local Situation; and the Inhabitants of the said Parish of Kilgobbin, comprehending a poor and necessitous District, are unable to contribute to the rebuilding of the said Church of Kilgobbin: And Whereas the respective Inhabitants of the said Parishes of Kilmoren and Kilgobbin, with the Consent and Approbation of His Grace the new Lord Archbishop of Dublin and Bishop of Glendalough, the Patrons of the said Parish or Vicarage of Kilmoren; the Reverend and Reverend Clergy Rector, the Incumbent of the said Parish or Union of Bray; the Reverend Henry Kearney, Perpetual Curate of the said Parish or Cure of Kilgobbin; and the Venerable John Torrens, the Archbishop of Dublin, who is entitled in right of his Archdeaconry to nominate the Perpetual Curate of the said Parish of Kilgobbin, are desirous that the said Parishes of Kilmoren and Kilgobbin should be united and made One entire Parish, to be called "The Parish of Kilmoren;" and that a new Church shall be forthwith erected and built on the Globe Lands aforesaid, convenient to and capable of accommodating the Inhabitants of the said Parishes of Kilmoren and Kilgobbin; the said Henry Kearney, the present Curate of Kilgobbin, and the said Archbishop of Dublin, first conveying a sufficient Quantity of the said Globe Land for the Site of a Church and Churchyard to the Churchwardens of the said Parish to be called the Parish of Kilmoren, and their Successors, Churchwardens for ever, of the said Parish, for the Use of the said Parish: And Whereas the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fields of the several Benefices in Ireland have lately granted the Sum of Nine hundred Pounds for building a Church in the said Parish of Kilmoren, wherein there has not been any Church for the Performance of Divine Worship for upwards of Twenty Years last past: And Whereas Elizabeth Andrews and Susan Andrews, Spinners, have proposed and agreed to grant and convey to the Vicar or Incumbent of the said Parish, to be called "The Parish of Kilmoren," for ever, for the Use of the said Vicar or Incumbent and his Successors, other Ground equal in Quality and Quantity to that which may be so assigned and allowed for the Site of the said intended new Church: And Witness by means that the said Parish or Cure of Kilgobbin is not a presentative Benefice, the perpetual Union of the said last mentioned Parish or Cure, with the said Vicarage or Parish of Kilmoren, cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: For that Purpose be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and immediately after the First Day of July next, the said Parish of Kilmoren shall be for ever separated and disannexed from the said Parish or Union or Vicarage of Bray, and

and that the said Two Parishes of Kilbrannan and Kilgobbin shall be for ever thereafter united and be and become One entire Parish or Vicarage and Parsonage Benefice, to be called "The Parish of Kilbrannan;" and that the Reverend Henry Keating, the present Curate or Incumbent of the said Parish of Kilgobbin, shall be the First and Modern Incumbent or Vicar of the said hereby created Union or Parish of Kilbrannan, without any Presentation, Admonition, Institution or Induction, or any other Act or Title whatsoever other than this present Act; and that the present Churchwardens of the said Parish of Kilgobbin shall be the First Churchwardens of the said hereby created Union or Parish of Kilbrannan, as fully as if they had been duly elected as such by the Inhabitants of the said United Parishes in Vestry duly assembled.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender who shall have been or shall be so sentenced or ordered to be transported or banished, or who shall have agreed or shall agree to transport or banish himself or herself on certain Conditions, either for Life or any Number of Years, under the Provisions of this or any former Act, shall be afterwards at large within any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, without some lawful Cause, before the Expiration of the Term for which such Offender shall have been sentenced or ordered to be transported or banished, or shall have so agreed to transport or banish himself or herself, every such Offender as being at large, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without the Benefit of Clergy; and such Offender may be tried either in the County or Place where he or she shall be apprehended, or in that from whence he or she was ordered to be transported or banished; and if any Person shall rescue or attempt to rescue, or assist in rescuing or attempting to rescue, any such Offender from the Custody of such Superintendent or Overseer, or of any Sheriff or Gaoler or other Person conveying, removing, transporting or reconveying him or her, or shall convey or cause to be conveyed any Disguise, Instrument for effecting Escape, or Arms to such Offender, every such Offence shall be punishable in the same Manner as if such Offender had been confined in a Gaol or Prison in the Custody of the Sheriff or Gaoler, for the Crimes of which such Offender shall have been convicted; and whoever shall discover and prosecute to Conviction any such Offender as being at large within this Kingdom, shall be entitled to a Reward of Twenty Pounds for every such Offender so convicted.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in any Indictment against any Offender for being found at large contrary to the Provisions of this or of any other Act now made or hereafter to be made, and also in any Indictment against any Person who shall rescue or attempt to rescue, or assist in rescuing any such Offender from such Custody, or who shall convey or cause to be conveyed any Disguise, Instrument for effecting Escape, or Arms, to any such Offender, contrary to the Provisions of this or of any other Act now made or hereafter to be made, whether such Offender shall have been tried before any Court or Judge within or without the United Kingdom, or before any Naval or Military Court Martial, it shall be sufficient to charge and allege the Order made for the Transportation or Banishment of such Offender, without charging or alleging any Indictment, Trial, Conviction, Judgment or Sentence, or any Pardon or Intervention of Mercy or Signification thereof, of or against or in any Manner relating to such Offender.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Court or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Court where such Sentence or Order of Transportation or Banishment shall have been passed or made, shall, at the Request of any Person on His Majesty's Behalf, make out and give a

Certificate

XXV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained respecting Offenders under Sentence or Order of Banishment, shall apply to Persons adjudged to be banished under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of His late Majesty's King, intitled An Act for the more effectual Prevention and Punishment of Robberies and other Felonies.

XXVI. And whereas it hath sometimes happened, that Felons under Sentence or Order of Transportation in New South Wales and the Islands adjacent, have received from the Governor or Lieutenant Governor thereof Remissions, either absolute or conditional, of the Whole or of some Part of the Term of their Transportation, and have by their Industry acquired Property, in the Enjoyment whereof it is expedient to protect them; and the like may happen in future in the same Colony, and in other Colonies to which Felons may be transported under and by virtue of this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every Felon under Sentence or Order of Transportation, who hath received or shall receive any such Remission as aforesaid from the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of New South Wales, or from the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any other Colony, who may be authorized to grant the same, while such Felon shall reside in a Place where he lawfully may reside under such Sentence, Order or Remission, and under the Provisions of this Act, to maintain any Action or Suit for the Recovery of any Property, Real, Personal or Mixed, acquired by such Felon since his or her Conviction, and for any Damage or Injury sustained by such Felon since his or her Conviction, not only in the Courts of the Colony or Place where such Felon shall lawfully reside, but also in the Courts of this Kingdom, and of all other His Majesty's Dominions; and of the Defendant in any such Action or Suit shall plead or allege in his Defence the Plaintiff's or Complainant's Conviction of Felony, and the Plaintiff or Complainant shall allege and prove that he or she hath received such Remission as aforesaid, and a Verdict in such Place consistent therewith and with the Provisions of this Act, a Verdict shall pass and Judgment shall be given for the Plaintiff or Complainant.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit or Action shall be prosecuted in England, Wales or Town, against any Person for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, the Defendant may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done by the Authority of this Act; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or Judgment shall in any Manner be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall recover Treble Costs, and have the like Privilege for the same as any Defendants have by Law in other Cases; and notwithstanding a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall be had shall certify his Approbation of the Verdict.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Actions, Suits and Prosecutions against any Person for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwise; and if the Fact was done within the Body of any County, it shall be laid and tried in that County, and no other; and if done out of the Body of any County, it shall be laid and tried in the County of Middlesex, and not elsewhere.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, so much of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intitled An Act for the further preventing Robbery, Burglary and other Felonies, and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons, and several Exemptions of Wives; and for declaring the Life upon some Points relating to Pirates, as relates to Contracts and Security for the Transportation of Offenders, and to the Punishment of those who return from Transportation; and so much of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the same King, intitled An Act for the better preventing Robbery, Burglary and other Felonies, and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons, as relates to the same Objects (and as an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more easy and effectual Conviction of Offenders found at large within the Kingdom of Great Britain, after they have been ordered for Transportation; and as an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more speedy and effectual Transportation of Offenders; and so much of an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the same King, intitled *An Act to continue several Laws relating to the granting a Bounty on the Exports of certain Species of British and Irish Linens exported, and taking of the Duties on the Importation of Foreign Raw Linens Yarns made of Flax, and to the preventing the receiving of Presents by Bankrupts, and for continuing and amending several Laws relating to the Improvement and Transportation of Offenders, as relates to the Transportation of Offenders, and their Removal to and Imprisonment in respective Places of Confinement; and so much of an Act passed in the Thirty first Year of the same King, intitled An Act for the better regulating of Goals and other Places of Confinement, as relates to the Imprisonment and Employment in hard Labour of Prisoners sentenced to Transportation; and an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the same King, intitled An Act to facilitate and render more easy the Transportation of Offenders; shall be and the same are hereby repealed.*

WHETHERAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the building, repairing and regulating of certain Gaols and Houses of Correction in England and Wales: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Act should in some Respects be amended, and that Provision should be made for ascertaining the State of all other Prisons in England and Wales: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, or any Two of them, or for other Persons having the Government or ordering of any Gaol or House of Correction, in any City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty, to contract with the Justices of the Peace, having Authority or Jurisdiction in and over any Gaol or House of Correction of the County, Riding or Division, wherein or whereunto such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty is situate or adjacent, or with any Two of them, for the Support and Maintenance, in such last mentioned Gaol or House of Correction, of any Prisoners committed thereto, from such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty; provided that no such Contract be entered into by any Justices of the Peace of any County, Riding or Division, without an Order for that Purpose being made at some General or Quarter Sessions, or Gaol Sessions, having Jurisdiction in that behalf, set by the Justices or other Persons having the Government of the Peace of any such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty, without an Order for that Purpose being made at the Sessions thereof; and every such Contract may either be perpetual, or limited to a certain Term of Years, as the Parties shall mutually agree: and during the Continuance of such Contract, every Prisoner who would otherwise be confined in the Gaol or House of Correction of the City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty, so contracting, may be lawfully committed or removed to and confined in the Gaol or House of Correction as aforesaid, or be under such Contract; and all Prisoners so confined by Contract, whether before or after Trial, shall be subject in all Matters and Things to the same Rules and Regulations as if they were committed thereto by any of the Justices of the County, Riding or Division; and if committed before Trial, shall be tried and tried in the same Manner as if their Offences had been committed in a Part of the County, Riding or Division, not within the City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty from whence such Prisoners shall come; save only, that if the Gaol or House of Correction in receiving under Contract a Prisoner committed for Trial, shall be situate within Two Miles of the usual Place of Trial of the City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty wherein the Offence charged against such Prisoner shall be alleged to have been committed, it shall be lawful to try such Prisoner in the Maner heretofore accustomed, and for the Magistrate, or other proper Officer of such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty, to direct the Removal of such Prisoner for Trial, and to do all other Acts necessary for such Trial, or consequent thereon.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Moneys to be paid under any such Contract as aforesaid shall be raised in the same Manner as Moneys for defraying the Expenses of the Gaol or House of Correction for which a Substitute shall be provided under such Contract; and where such Expenses are not wholly defrayed from the same Fund, and there shall arise a Difference of Opinion between the Parties interested in the several Funds applicable to the several Prisons, as to the Proportion in which those Funds respectively shall contribute to the Sum to be paid to the County, Riding or Division, for the Use of the Prison, and such Difference shall not be adjusted by Agreement between themselves, it shall be lawful for either of such Parties to apply to the Justices of Assize of the last preceding Circuit, or of the next succeeding Circuit, or to One of such Justices, who shall, by Writing under their or his Hands or Seal, nominate a Barrister at Law, not having any Interest in the Question, to arbitrate between the Parties; and such Arbitrator may, if he shall see fit, adjourn the Hearing from time to time, and require all such further Information to be afforded by either of the Parties, as shall appear to him most and necessary; and shall by his Award in Writing, determine the Proportions in which such Parties shall contribute towards the said Expenses; and his Award shall be final and conclusive between the Parties; and such Arbitrator shall also assess the Costs of the Arbitration, and shall direct by whom, and out of what Fund, the same shall be paid.

III. And be it further enacted, That during the Continuance of any such Contract, if it shall extend to the Whole of the Prisoners who would otherwise be confined in the Gaol or House of Correction of the City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty so contracting, such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty shall not be liable to Indictment or Imprehension for the Nonrepair of its Gaol or House of Correction respectively; and if such Contract shall extend to only a certain Class or Classes of its Prisoners, such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty shall not be liable to provide the Accommodation required to be otherwise provided for the same Class or Classes of Prisoners by the said recited Act, or by any other Act now in Force.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if it shall seem fit to the Magistrate or Superintending Officers of any City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty, that instead of allowing or building any Gaol or House of Correction for their separate Use, or contracting under the Provisions aforesaid, it would be more advisable to raise a Sum or Sums of Money in and of building a new or of enlarging a County Prison, it shall shall be lawful for them to agree with the Justices of the Peace, having Authority or Jurisdiction in and over any Gaol or House of Correction of the County, Riding or Division wherein or whereunto such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty is situate or adjacent, or with any Two of them, for the Payment to such Justices, having such Authority as aforesaid, of any Sum or Sums of Money to be by them applied in or towards the altering, enlarging, building, rebuilding, repairing or improving such Gaol or House of Correction of the County, Riding or Division aforesaid: Provided that no such Agreement be entered into by any Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding or Division, without an Order for that Purpose being made at some General or Quarter Sessions or Gaol Sessions having Jurisdiction in that behalf.

V. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Monies to be paid under any such Agreement as last mentioned shall be raised in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions, as is directed in respect of Monies to be raised for the building or rebuilding, repairing or enlarging any Gaol or House of Correction under the Provisions of this Act.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Justices of the Peace of any such County, Riding or Division, entering into any such Agreement as last aforesaid, to stipulate in the same (if they shall see fit so to do) that it shall be lawful for such County, Riding or Division at such Year or Times as shall be in that behalf provided in such Agreement, to repay to the said City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty the Sum or Sums of Money which shall have been so paid or advanced in or towards the altering, enlarging, building, rebuilding, repairing or improving such Gaol or House of Correction of the County, Riding or Division aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Chief Magistrate of every City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty now having a Gaol or House of Correction, in England and Wales, shall, in the Month of October next, report to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State whether any Contract has been made with the County, Riding or Division, for the Use of its Prisons, or any of them, by such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty, and to what Classes of Prisoners such Contract, if any, shall extend; and if there be no such Contract, whether any Steps have been taken towards such Contract; and if so, in what State the Treaty is, and what Obstacles there are to its Completion; and the Chief Magistrate of every such City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty where no such Contract shall be in Execution, shall, in the same Month of October, transmit to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, a Copy of all such Rules and Regulations as shall be then in Force for the Government of every such Prison, and a Return in the Form of the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (A.), and a Statement of the Establishment of Officers and Servants employed therein, specifying the Number and Description of such Officers and Servants, and the Salaries and Emoluments of each, and by whom such Officers and Servants are respectively appointed, and a Plan of every such Prison, drawn upon a Scale of One sixteenth of an Inch to a Foot, and the said Copies and Plans shall be carefully preserved in the Office of such Secretary of State; and such Magistrate shall, in every subsequent Month of October, send such a Contract shall be entered into, transmit to such Secretary of State a Return in the Form of the said Schedule, and a Copy of all Additions to such Rules and Regulations, or Alterations made therein, and a Statement of any Increase or Diminution in such Establishment of Officers and Servants, or in their respective Salaries and Emoluments, together with Plans, on the Scale above mentioned, of any Additions to the Buildings of such Prison or Alterations made in the Construction thereof, during the preceding Year.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Chairman of the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held next after the Commencement of this Act, for every County, Riding, Division, District, City, Town or Place in which the said recited Act shall extend, shall transmit within Fourteen Days after the Commencement of such Sessions, to One of His Majesty's Secretaries of State, a true and correct Statement of the Establishment of Officers and Servants employed in every Prison within the Jurisdiction of the Justice assembled at such Sessions, specifying the Number and Description of such Officers and Servants, the Salaries and Emoluments of each, by whom such Officers and Servants are respectively appointed, and the said Statements shall be carefully preserved in the Office of such Secretary of State; and the Chairman of every such succeeding Michaelmas Quarter Sessions shall transmit, within Fourteen Days after the Termination of such Michaelmas Quarter Sessions, a true and correct Statement of any Increase or Diminution in every such Establishment of Officers and Servants, or in their respective Salaries or Emoluments, as have been made since the preceding Michaelmas Quarter Sessions.

IX. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to the Cities of Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

X. And Whereas in some other Counties and Places to which the said recited Act extends, by reason of the small Number of Prisoners usually confined therein, it may not be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

In all such Gaols, the Male and Female Prisoners shall be confined in separate Wards or Parts of the Gaol. The Male Prisoners shall be divided into Five Classes: First, Debtors and Prisoners committed for Contempt of Court on Civil Process; Second and Third, Prisoners convicted, who may be put into either of these Classes, as to the Visiting Magistrates may seem meet, Reference being had to the Character and Conduct of the Prisoners, and the Nature of their Offence; Fourth and Fifth, Prisoners committed for Trial, who may also be put into either of these Two Classes, as to the Visiting Magistrates shall be seen to be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

trates shall be seen to be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

trates shall be seen to be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

trates shall be seen to be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

trates shall be seen to be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

trates shall be seen to be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

trates shall be seen to be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

trates shall be seen to be necessary to provide the whole Number of Wards and string Grounds thereby required, but it is necessary to provide that in all Prisons some certain Means of Classification should be secured; Be it further enacted, That in every Prison to which the said recited Act extends, except Canterbury, Litchfield and Lincoln, Provisions shall be made for the following Classification, as the least:

grates may seem meet, Reference being had in like Manner to the Character and Conduct of the Prisoners, and the Nature of their Offence.

The Female Prisoners shall be divided at least into Three Classes: First, Debtors and Persons committed for Contempt of Court on Civil Process: Second, Prisoners convicted: Third, Prisoners admitted for Trial.

In all such Houses of Correction, the Male and Female Prisoners shall also be confined in separate Wards or Parts of the House. The Male Prisoners shall be divided into Five Classes: First and Second, Prisoners convicted, who may be put into either of such Classes, as to the Visiting Magistrates may seem meet, Regard being had to the Character and Conduct of the Prisoners, and the Nature of their Offence: Third and Fourth, Prisoners committed for Trial, in all Houses of Correction where such Prisoners are received; such Prisoners may be put into either of these Classes, as to the Visiting Magistrates may seem meet, Regard being had, as already mentioned, to the Character and Conduct of the Prisoners, and the Nature of his Offence: Fifth, Vagrants.

In Places where the Gaol and House of Correction are united, the Male Prisoners shall be divided into Six Classes at least: First, Debtors and Prisoners committed for Contempt of Court on Civil Process: Second and Third, convicted Prisoners: Fourth and Fifth, those committed for Trial; such Prisoners to be assigned to either of these Classes of Prisoners convicted or committed respectively, as to the Visiting Magistrates shall seem meet, Regard being always had to the Character and Conduct of the Prisoners, and the Nature of their Offence: Sixth, Vagrants.

The Female Prisoners, in each of such Houses of Correction, shall be divided into Three Classes: First and Second, Prisoners convicted; the Prisoners to be put into either of such Classes, as to the Visiting Magistrates shall seem meet, Regard being had to their Character and Conduct, and the Nature of their Offence: Vagrants shall be assigned in one or the other of these Classes, as the Visiting Magistrates, in their Discretion, may see meet: Third, where Females are committed to any House of Correction before Trial they shall be kept in a Class by themselves.

XXI. And Whereas in some Counties of Wales it may be consistent with the due Classification of the Prisoners, to dispense with some of the Wards or sitting Grounds required by the said recited Act and this Act: Be it therefore further enacted, That if the Court of Quarter Sessions of any County in Wales shall, during the present Year, present a Petition to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council setting forth the whole Number of Prisoners imprisoned in the Common Gaol and House or Houses of Correction of such County, within the last Seven Years, with the Causes of their Imprisonment respectively, so as to exhibit in which of the Classes prescribed by the said recited Act, or this Act, such such Prisoner would have been included, and showing also the greatest Number of such Prisoners imprisoned in such Gaol and House or Houses of Correction, at any one Time in each of the said Seven Years; and setting forth fully and particularly the then State of such Gaol and House or Houses of Correction, and an Estimate of the Expence which would be incurred by enlarging such Gaol, or such House of Correction, to which the Petition shall apply, as to the extent of the whole Number of Wards and sitting Grounds required by the said Act or this Act, and the Amount of the County Rate for each of the said Seven Years, and paying a Discharge with some Part of the Wards or other Accommodations required by the said Act or this Act, which under the Circumstances of such County may to such Court appear unnecessary, it shall be lawful for the said Lords of the Privy Council to take such Petition into their Consideration, and, if they shall see fit, to make an Order thereon, directing in what Manner and to what Extent it shall be sufficient for such County to comply with the Provisions of the said Act and this Act, and making such Regulations touching the same as to them shall seem meet; and such County duly complying with such Order, shall not be liable to be indicted, or otherwise impeached, for not further conforming itself to the Regulations of the said Act and this Act, in regard to the Extent of its Prison, or the Wards into which they are divided, or the Accommodation to be found therein, any Thing in the said recited Act or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That any Person confined in any Prison to which the said recited Act extends, for Nonpayment of any Penalties incurred under the Statutes Laws, may be assigned to such Class of convicted Prisoners for whom a separate Ward is therein provided, as the Visiting Magistrates in their Discretion may think fit, Regard being had to the Character of the Prisoner, and his or her Conduct while in Prison; and the Reasons for assigning such Prisoner to any particular Class of Cousins shall be reported by the Visiting Magistrates to the Quarter Sessions.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That where, in any Prison, there shall be only One Prisoner belonging to any Class in the said Act or herein specified, such Prisoner may be assigned, with his or her own Consent, to any other Class of Prisoners of the same Sex, which the Visiting Magistrates in their Discretion shall think fit.

XXIV. And Whereas by the said recited Act it is required, that when the Gaol and Houses of Correction are included within the same Boundary Wall, it shall be ascertained and declared what Part or Parts shall be considered as the Gaol, and what as the House of Correction: Be it further enacted, That notwithstanding any Thing in the said Act contained, it may be lawful for the Justices, in their General or Quarter Sessions, to declare in any such Case that such Parts of the Buildings as shall be appropriated for the Chapel, and for the Sick Ward or Infirmary, shall be common both to the Gaol and to the House of Correction, and that in that Case a double Set of Walls shall not be necessary.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in the said recited Act or in this Act contained shall abridge any City, Town, Borough, Port or Liberty to provide in its Gaol or House of Correction Accommodations

Regulations herein mentioned may be dispensed with in Welsh Counties.

Prisoners remaining Prisoners for Breach of Revenue Laws.

Prisoners with- out Confinement.

Walls, Gaol and House of Correction are contiguous, Chapel and Infirmary may be common to both.

Prison as to Liberty of modation for any Class of Prisoners who could not be lawfully committed to such Prison before the passing of the said recited Act; and that nothing in or the said recited Act or this Act contained shall alter or affect the Liability of any Bodies Politic or Corporate, or of the Inhabitants of any Parish, Township or Place, or of any Individuals bound by Statute, Tenure, Custom, Prescription or Usage, to repair or to contribute towards the Repair of any Prison, or to maintain or contribute towards the Maintenance of the Prisoners confined in any Prison, or to pay or contribute towards the Payment of any Expenses whatsoever connected with any Prison, but that all such Parties shall remain liable to all such Charges as if the said recited Act and this Act had not been made.

XVI. And Whereas by the said recited Act it was made lawful for One or more Visiting Justice or Justices of any Prison to which the same extended, to authorize, by an Order in Writing, the Employment of Prisoners committed for Trial, with their own Consent, in any such Work as aforesaid specified; Be it hereby enacted and declared, That such Consent of every such Prisoner shall be freely given, and shall not be extorted or obtained by Deprivation or Threats of Deprivation of any Prison or other Allowance; and that no Prisoner before Conviction shall, under any Pretence, be employed on the Tread wheel, either with or without his Consent.

XVII. And Whereas it has been doubted whether Prisoners committed to Prison for Trial, who are unable to maintain themselves otherwise than by being employed in some Kind of Work or Labour in Prisons, are entitled to receive any Prison Allowance of Food without being required so to employ themselves; Be it hereby enacted and declared, That such Prisoners shall be allowed such Food as may be sufficient for the Support of Health, without being obliged to perform any Kind of Work or Labour as the Condition of such Allowance; and that any Wages or Portion of the same, which may become due to such Prisoners from the Keeper of any Prison, in consequence of any Order made by any Visiting Justice or Justices of such Prison, for the Employment of such Prisoners with their own Consent, shall be paid to them as directed by such Order, in addition to the Food so allowed, and without any Distribution of such Allowance by reason of such Payment.

XVIII. And Whereas it may be found expedient in some Places, for the Purpose of building, enlarging or rendering more commodious the Goal or House of Correction, to fix upon Lands or Tenements over which Rights of Common exist; and in such Case great Difficulties may arise in purchasing and obtaining a Conveyance of such Concessable Lands or Tenements under the general Powers of the said recited Act; Be it therefore enacted, That for the Purpose of the said recited Act and of this Act, and of any Local Act relative to any such Goal or House of Correction, the Churchwardens for the Time being of the Parish wherein any such Concessable Lands or Tenements shall be situate, shall be considered as the Persons solely and absolutely entitled to the Rights of Common of Pasture, or other Concessable Rights to which any such Lands or Tenements shall be subject; and that the Means for which any such Concessable Rights shall be purchased, shall be paid to such Churchwardens, whose Receipts shall be an effectual Discharge for the same; and the same Means shall be applied by such Churchwardens to such general and public Purposes within the Parish where the Lands or Tenements so purchased shall be situate, as a Vestry of such Parish, to be convened by such Churchwardens, shall direct.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of receiving the Notice required by the said recited Act to be given to Persons interested in Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges contiguous to any Goal or House of Correction, and deemed necessary for the Purpose of enlarging the same, or rendering it more commodious, the Occupier of such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges, shall be deemed the Person interested therein; and that every such Occupier, upon receiving any such Notice, shall forthwith transmit or deliver the same to any other Person interested, under whom he may hold the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements or Privileges so deemed necessary.

XX. An Act to authorize the Proprietors of Entailed Estates in Scotland to grant Provisions to the Wives or Husbands and Children of such Proprietors. [31st June 1824.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Year One thousand six hundred and eighty five, intitled An Act concerning Tailzies, it is enacted and declared, that it shall be lawful to His Majesty's Subjects to make their Lands and Estates with such Provisions and Conditions as they shall think fit, and to affect the said Tailzies with irrevocable and resolute Clauses, which Tailzies when completed and recorded in Manner by the said Act directed, are declared to be real and effectual against Creditors, Compensers, Assignees and other singular Successors whatsoever: And Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to encourage the Improvement of Lands, Towns and Hereditaments, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, held under settlement of strict Entail, the Proprietors of Entailed Estates in Scotland were empowered to burden their Estates and the subsequent Heirs of Entail, for the Improvement of their Entailed Estates, in Manner specified in that Act: And Whereas sundry Entails of Lands and Estates in Scotland contain no Powers in regard to the granting of Provisions to the Wives or Husbands and Children of the Proprietors thereof; and in many other Entails, by reason of the Change in the Value of Money, the supposed Value of Lands and Estates in Scotland, and other Causes, the Powers of granting Provisions to the Wives or Husbands and Children of the Proprietors of such Entailed Estates have become entirely inadequate for those Purposes; and it has become expedient that the Powers of granting such Provisions should be conferred or enlarged, so the Case may be, under certain Regulations and Conditions, in all Entails already made or hereafter to be made: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to every Heir of Entail in Possession of an Entailed Estate under any Entail already made or hereafter to be made, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, under the Limitations and Conditions after mentioned, to provide and bestow his Wife in a Lifetime Provision out of his Entailed Lands and Estates by way of Annuity, provided always, that such Annuity shall not exceed One third Part of the free yearly Rent of the said Lands and Estates, where the same shall be let, or of the free yearly Value thereof where the same shall not be let, after deducting the public Burdens, Life-rent Provisions, the yearly Interest of Debts and Provisions, including the Interest of Provisions to Children hereinafter specified, and the yearly Amount of other Burdens of what Nature soever affecting

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Child to whom any such Provision as aforesaid may be granted shall marry, and that such Provision, or any Part thereof, shall, with the Consent of the Grantor of the same, be settled in the Contract made in Consideration of the Marriage of such Child, and such Child in marrying shall die before the Grantor of such Provision, then and in all such Cases the Provision, or any Part thereof, so settled in Consideration of such Marriage, shall remain and be effectual, as if such Child had survived the Grantor.

Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That where the Powers heretofore contained of granting Provisions to a Child or Children shall have been exercised by One or more Heir or Heirs in Possession of any such Entailed Lands and Estates as aforesaid, to the full Extent of Three Years' free Rent or Value of the Entailed Estate as aforesaid, it shall not be in the Power of any Heir, in Possession of the same Lands and Estates, to grant further Provisions to his or her Child or Children, till some Part of the Provisions granted to the Extent of Three Years' free Rent or Value as aforesaid shall have been paid or extinguished; but upon the Payment or Exinction thereof, or of any Part thereof, it shall be in the Power of such Heir in Possession to grant Provisions to his or her Child or Children, to the Extent of the Provisions so paid or extinguished as aforesaid; the Heir in Possession of any such Entailed Lands and Estates as aforesaid being always hereby empowered to grant Provisions to his or her Child or Children, to such Extent of the Power of granting Provisions to a Child or Children heretofore contained, as may be open or unexercised for the Time, so that the Provisions to be granted do not in any Case exceed the Proportions aforesaid of One Year's free Rent or Value for One Child, of Two Years' free Rent or Value for Two Children, and of Three Years' free Rent or Value for Three or more Children: And provided always, that such Provision shall (except in the Case of the Settlement thereof by a Marriage Contract as heretofore mentioned,) be void and effectual only to such Child or Children as shall be alive at the Death of the Grantor, or to the Child or Children of which the Wife of the Grantor shall be then pregnant; and that upon any such Child succeeding to the Entailed Estate, the Provision granted to him or her, in so far as not previously paid, shall be extinguished for ever, and shall never be set up as a Debt against any succeeding Heir.

to be null and void, but the same shall be voidable in the Instance of the Heir of Entail next in the Order of Succession or of any other Heir of Entail, in such Extent as such Provision shall exceed those herein authorized in each respective Case to be granted, but no further; and the Court of Session in either Division thereof is hereby authorized and required to make the necessary Order to that Effect, on advancing a Petition to be proceeded to that Court by the Heir of Entail next in the Order of such Succession, or any other Heir of Entail.

XII. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to diminish or abridge the Powers of the Heir in Possession of any such Entailed Estate in Scotland as aforesaid, in regard to the granting of Provisions to his or her Wife or Husband or to his or her Child or Children, if empowered by the Deed of Entail under which he or she shall hold such Entailed Estate, to grant Provisions to a larger Extent than those heretofore specified; but it shall not be lawful in any case to grant any such Provisions as is heretofore authorized to be granted in addition to any Provision authorized to be granted to a Wife or Husband or to a Child or Children, under any Deed of Entail, as in it enacted in the Whole the Provisions of the yearly Rent or yearly Value of any Entailed Estate heretofore mentioned and authorized to be granted for making such Provisions as aforesaid.

An Act for the Relief, in certain Cases, of the Incumbents of Ecclesiastical Livings or Benefices mortgaged for building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing Houses and other necessary Buildings and Tenements for such Benefices. [21st Jan 1824.]

17 G. 3. c. 23.

21 G. 3. c. 48.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to promote the Rebuilding of the Parochial Churches, by making Provision for the more speedy and effectual building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing Houses and other necessary Buildings and Tenements for the Use of their Churches; and another Act made in the Twenty first Year of His said Majesty's said Reign, to explain and amend the said Act; many Mortgages of Ecclesiastical Livings and Benefices have been made, and are still remaining in force, as Securities for Monies borrowed for building, rebuilding, repairing or purchasing Houses and other necessary Buildings and Tenements for such Benefices; and in most Cases the Sums of Money borrowed on such Mortgages have been to the full Amount authorized by the said Acts, that is to say, Two Years Net Income and Produce of the said respective Livings or Benefices, estimated at or previous to the Execution of such several Mortgages in the Manner by the said Acts directed; and the Incumbents of the said respective Livings or Benefices are liable, according to the Directions of the said Acts, to pay Five Pounds per Centum per Annum of the Principal Monies so borrowed; or in case such Incumbents shall not receive Twenty Weeks in each Year upon such Livings or Benefices, then instead of Five Pounds per Cent. to pay Ten Pounds per Cent. per Annum of the said Principal Monies, over and above the Interest arising upon such Mortgages, until the whole Principal Monies and Interest shall be fully paid and discharged: And Whereas great Reduction has taken place in the Income and Produce of many Livings or Benefices mortgaged by virtue of the said Acts since the respective Mortgages thereof were made, whereby it happens that the Yearly Payments in Discharge of the Monies borrowed on such Mortgages, which the Incumbents of the said Livings or Benefices are liable to pay, amount to a larger Proportion of the present Income and Produce thereof than it was contemplated or intended that they should be liable to pay according to the Directions of the said Acts; and it is just and expedient that such Provision be made for the Relief of Incumbents of Livings or Benefices already mortgaged by virtue of the said Acts as hereinafter is expressed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, His and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Incumbent of every Living or Benefice mortgaged before the passing of this Act, under or by virtue of the said former Acts, for the Amount of Two Years' Net Income and Produce thereof, to lay before the Ordinary of such Living or Benefice a just and particular Account in Writing, signed by such Incumbent, and verified upon his Oath, taken before some Justice of the Peace or Master in Chancery, Ordinary or Extraordinary, (which Oath every Justice of the Peace and every Master in Chancery is hereby empowered to administer), of the Income or Produce of such Living or Benefice at the Time of making such Account thereof, and of all Rents, Stipends, Taxes and other Outgoings thereon, excepting only the Salary to the Assistant Curate, where such a Curate is necessary; and it shall and may be lawful for the Ordinary thereupon to cause an Enquiry to be made by the Archdeacon, Chancellor of the Diocese, or other proper Persons resident within or near the Limits of such Living or Benefice, of the Truth of the said Account, and the Result of the said Enquiry to be certified by such Archdeacon, Chancellor or other Persons; and the Incumbent of such Living or Benefice, and the Mortgagee or Mortgagees thereof, may and they are hereby empowered, with the Consent of the Ordinary and Patron of such Living or Benefice, to agree that the Yearly Payments in Discharge of the Principal Money secured by the Mortgage of such Living or Benefice, and to become due after such Agreement, shall be made at the Rate of Five Pounds per Cent. or Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, as the Case may require, according to the Directions of the said former Acts and this Act, of the Sum which Two Years' Net Income and Produce of the said Living or Benefice shall appear to amount unto according to the Account thereof laid before and the Certificate returned to the Ordinary as herein mentioned; and every such Agreement shall be valid and effectual; and the Mortgage made of every such Living or Benefice shall be and remain in force as a Security for the Yearly Payments thereby agreed to be made, as well as for Payment of the Interest arising on such Mortgage, and with all the Powers and Remedies for enforcing the same given by the said former Acts, until the Money borrowed and all Interest for the same, and also all Costs and Charges which shall be occasioned by the Redemption thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged, in like Manner as if such Yearly Payments had been expressly mentioned in and secured by the said Mortgage, the Expiration of the Term of Years granted by the said Mortgage, or any other Clause or Matter whatsoever notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Agreement which shall be entered into by virtue of this Act shall be in Writing, in the Form in the Schedule to this Act set forth, or to that Effect, under the Hands of the Ordinary, Patron, Incumbent and Mortgagee or Mortgagees of the Living or Benefice to which the same shall relate, or the Common Seal of such, if there be a Body Corporate Aggregate.

Incumbents of mortgaged Livings for Amount of Two Years' Income may lay before Ordinary Account of Value of such Livings, Enquiry to be made of Trusts thereof.

 ‘ certain Cases be restrained from buying and selling: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may ‘ be enacted; and he it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and ‘ Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and ‘ by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said recited Act passed in ‘ the Reign of His Majesty King Henry the Sixth, and so much of the said recited Act of His Majesty
 ‘ King Charles the First, as relates to Gifts, Grants, Alterations, Forfeitures, Charges and Incumbrances ‘ upon, laid enacted by any Minister or other Beneficer therein mentioned, or by any Person, Vicar
 ‘ or other Beneficer having Care of Souls, and to Benefices of Spiritual Persons on their Benefices, ‘ and also so much of the said recited Acts of the Parliament of Ireland, made in the Sixth Year of ‘ King George the First, and in the First Year of King George the Second, and in the Fourth Year of ‘ King George the Third, as relates to the Maintenance of Curates within the Church of Ireland, and ‘ making Provisions for appointing Bishops for such Curates; and the whole of the said recited Act ‘ passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Third shall be and the same are re‘ spectively hereby repealed.*

 any other for him or to his Use, act as Treasurer of any County, or cognize in or carry on any Trade or Dealing for Gain or Profit, or be an Agent or Factor for any Estate, or deal in any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, by buying and selling for Loans, Gain or Profit, in any Market, Fair or other Place, upon Pain of forfeiting the Value of the Goods, Wares and Merchandise by him or by any to his Use, purchased and brought to sell again, contrary to the Provisions of this Act: and that every Bargain and Contract so made by him or by any to his Use, in any such Trade or Dealing or Agency, contrary to this Act, shall be utterly void and of none Effect; and the One Half of every such Forfeiture shall go to His Majesty, and the other Half to him that will sue for the same.

III. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, in relation to being engaged in Trade or Dealing, or buying or selling, shall extend or be construed to extend in, or to subject to any Penalty or Forfeiture any Spiritual Person for keeping a School or Seminary, or acting as a Schoolmaster

XXVIII. And Whereas it is expedient that Bishops should be empowered summarily to punish past Non-residence as well as to compel Residence in future: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases in which any Spiritual Person shall have become subject to any Penalty or Forfeiture for any Non-residence, it shall be lawful for the Bishop within whose Diocese such Penalty or Forfeiture shall have arisen, to proceed against such Spiritual Person for such past Non-residence, and to levy the Penalties incurred thereby by Mention and Sequestration, and to direct the Application thereof in like Manner, and subject to the same Regulations, and with like Powers of remitting or ordering the Payment of any Part of such Penalties, as is directed or allowed in Cases of Non-compliance with any Order for Residence.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Spiritual Person against whom any Action shall be brought for any Penalty or Forfeiture under the Provisions of this Act, by Leave of the Court in which such Actions shall depend, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall see fit, whereupon such Proceedings, Orders and Judgments shall be had, made and given in and by such Court, as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That the Court in which any Action, Bill, Pleint or Information shall be depending, for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture for Nonresidence under this Act, may and shall, upon Application made for that Purpose, require by Rule or Order of the said Court, or any Judge thereof, the Bishop of the Diocese within the Limits of which the Benefice shall be locally situate, or to whom the same shall be subject, according to the Provisions of this Act, for or by reason of Nonresidence in, at, † or upon which the Penalties and Forfeitures shall be sought to be recovered by such Action, Bill or Information, to certify in Writing under his Hand in the said Court, and also to the Party for that Purpose named in the said Rule or Order, the exact annual Value of such Benefice; and upon such Rule or Order being left with such Bishop, or the Registrar of such Bishop, such Bishop shall accordingly certify such exact annual Value; and such Certificate shall in all subsequent Proceedings upon such Action, Bill, Pleint or Information, be received and taken as Evidence of the annual Value of such Benefice for the Purposes of this Act, without Prejudice nevertheless to the Admissibility or Effect of any such other Evidence as may be offered or given respecting the actual Value thereof.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Spiritual Person to whom any Licence for Nonresidence shall have been granted, and against whom any Action shall be brought for any Penalty or Forfeiture by reason of any Nonresidence, or any Matter or Thing relating whereon any such Licence under this Act has been granted, to plead such Licence in Bar of any such Action; and if the Plaintiff in such Suit or Action shall discontinue any such Suit or Action after any Plea of Licence shall have been pleaded therein under this Act, then and in such Case the Defendant in such Suit or Action shall have full Costs of Suit; and if in any such Suit or Action a Verdict shall be given for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff shall become Nonsett, the Defendant shall have Double Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in other Cases to recover Costs by Law, and it shall be lawful for the Court, or any Judge of the Court in which any Suit or Action shall be commenced, upon any Application made to that Effect, to order and direct, if such Court or Judge shall deem it expedient so to do, that the Plaintiff in any such Suit or Action shall give Security for the Payment of such Costs, and that all Proceedings in any such Suit or Action shall be stood until such Security shall be given, as to the Court or Judge to whom any such Application shall be made shall seem fit.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if of the Time of filing any Mention requiring any Spiritual Person to reside on his Benefice, or to recover the Penalties incurred by past Nonresidence, or Notice of any Action for any such Penalty or Forfeiture shall have been already given in Manner aforesaid, then and in such Case as such Action, Suit, Bill, Pleint or Information shall be afterwards brought for any Penalty or Forfeiture incurred by reason of any Nonresidence of such Spiritual Person before the issuing of such Mention, and during any Proceedings that may be had under such Mention; and if any such Action or Suit shall be so commenced, the Defendant therein may plead to Bar thereof that such a Mention as aforesaid has been in respect of the same Benefice, and each Defendant, unless upon Application to the Court the same shall be departed with, shall, upon pleading such Mention, file or cause to be filed as Affidavit in the said Court, thereby stating the Period specified in such Mention, and that according to the Belief of the Defendant, the Bishop who has issued or caused such Mention to be issued, is proceeding upon the said Mention, to the intent to make the same effectual to all Intents and Purposes of this Act, otherwise such Plea shall not be good or available in the Law.

XLVIII. And he is further enacted, That in every Case where a Curate is appointed to serve a Benefice upon which the Incumbent is nonresident for more than Three Months in the Year, from Exemption, License or otherwise, such Curate shall be required by the Bishop to reside within the Parish, provided the gross Value of such Benefice amounts to Three hundred Pounds a Year or upwards, and the Population amounts to Three hundred Persons or upwards, or provided the Population amounts to One thousand Persons or upwards, whatever may be the Value of such Benefice: Provided always, that whenever it shall be made out to the Satisfaction of such Bishop, that from special and peculiar Circumstances great Inconvenience would arise from such Curate being compelled to reside within the Parish, it shall be lawful for the Bishop to allow such Curate to reside in some near and convenient Place: Provided also, that the Licensee to be granted to such Curate shall specify the special Circumstances which have induced the Bishop to allow such Residence out of the Parish, and shall be entered and filed in the Registry of the Diocese.

XLIX. And he is further enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the Satisfaction of any Bishop, either of his own Knowledge or upon Proof by Affidavit laid before him, that by reason of the Number of Churches or Chapels belonging to any Benefice locally situate within his Diocese, or the Distance of such Churches or Chapels from each other, or the Distance of the Residence of the Spiritual Person serving the same from such Churches or Chapels, or any or either of these, or the Negligence, or mental or bodily Infirmary of the Spiritual Person holding the same, that the Ecclesiastical Duties of such Benefice are inadequately performed, or where it shall appear to such Bishop as aforesaid, that the Residence of such Spiritual Person is at too great a Distance from any Parish united to the one in which he resides to admit of his performing all the Ecclesiastical Duties, such Bishop may, by Writing under his Hand, require the Spiritual Person holding such Benefice to nominate to him a fit Person or Persons, with sufficient Stipend or Stipends, to be licensed by him to perform or to assist in performing such Duties, specifying therein the Grounds of such Proceeding; and if such Spiritual Person shall neglect or omit to make such Nomination for the Space of Three Months after such Requisition so made as aforesaid, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for such Bishop to appoint a Curate or Curates, as the Case shall appear to such Bishop to require, with such Stipend or Stipends as such Bishop shall think fit to appoint, not exceeding in any Case in the Whole the Stipends allowed to Curates by this Act, nor, except in the Case of Negligence, exceeding One Half of the gross Annual Value of the Benefice, although the Spiritual Person to whom such Churches or Chapels shall actually reside or serve the same: Provided always, that such Requisition, and any Affidavit made to found the same, shall be bothwith filed by the Bishop in the Registry of his Diocese: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any such Spiritual Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any such Appointment of such Curate or Curates, to appeal to the Archbishop of the Province to which such Bishop shall belong, in such and the like Manner, and under such Provisions and Directions as are allowed to any Spiritual Person thinking himself aggrieved by any Separation made by any Bishop.

L. And he is further enacted, That in all Cases where the Bishop of the Diocese shall deem it proper to enforce the Performance of Morning and Evening Service on Sundays, or any other Service required by Law in any Parish Church or parochial Chapel, or the Chapel of any extra parochial Place, it shall be lawful for such Bishop to enforce the same by Monition and Sequestration, to be issued in the Manner by this Act provided.

LI. And he is further enacted, That every Bishop to whom any Application shall be made for any License for a Curate to serve for any Person not duly residing upon his Benefice, shall, before he shall grant such License, require a Statement of all the Particulars by this Act required to be used by any Person applying for a License for Nonresidence; and it shall not be lawful for any Bishop to grant a License to any Curate to serve the Church or Chapel of any Person as aforesaid, upon any such Application as aforesaid, until a Statement of all such Particulars as aforesaid shall have been delivered to him; and such Statement shall be kept and filed, and preserved from public Inspection, and disclosed only in like Manner and in such Cases as is before directed as to Statements of Persons applying for Licenses for Nonresidence.

LII. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Bishop, and he is hereby required, subject to the several Provisions and Restrictions in this Act contained, to appoint to every Curate such Salary as is allowed and specified in this Act; and every License to be granted to a Subsidiary Curate under this Act shall contain and specify the Amount of the Salary allowed by the Bishop to the Curate, and such License, or any Copy of the Registry thereof, signed by the Register of the Diocese or his Deputy, shall be Evidence of the Amount of the Salary so appointed to any Curate in all Courts of Law

LVI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which it shall be made out to the Satisfaction of the Bishop of any Diocese, that any Spiritual Person holding any Benefice in or has become incumbent, or incapable, from Age, Sickness or other unavoidable Cause, of performing the Duties thereof, and that from these or from any other special and peculiar Circumstances of the Case, great Hardship or Inconvenience would arise, if the full Amount of Salary specified in this Act should be allowed to the Curate, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Bishop to assign to the Curate any such Salary less than the said full Amount in this Act specified as shall under all the Circumstances appear to him just and reasonable: Provided always, that in the Licence granted in every such Case, it shall be stated, that for special Reasons the Bishop hath not thought proper to assign to the Curate the full Amount of Salary allowed or required to be assigned by this Act: Provided also, that such special Reasons shall be entered fully and at large in a separate Book, to be kept for that Purpose and to be deposited in the Registry of the Diocese, which Book shall not be open to Inspection, unless with the Leave of the Bishop or by other proper Authority, as in the Cases of Application for Licences for Nonresidence.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Spiritual Person shall serve more than Two Churches in One Day or Two Chapels, or One Church and One Chapel in One Day, unless from the local Situation of the Churches or Chapels, or from the Value of the Benefices to which they belong, or other special Causes, it may in the Judgment of the Bishop be expedient or necessary for the Performance of Ecclesiastical Duties in such Places to grant Licence to any Spiritual Person to serve Three Churches or Chapels, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Bishop to grant such Licence to any Spiritual Person to serve Three Churches or Chapels, not being distant from each other more than Four measured Miles: Provided always, that in every such Case the Reasons for granting such Licence shall be stated by the Bishop in the Licence granted for serving the Third of such Churches or Chapels held by such Spiritual Persons, and such Licence shall not be valid or effectual unless the Reasons for granting the same are inserted therein as aforesaid: Provided always, that the Residence of such Curate or Spiritual Person shall be so placed, as that it shall not be necessary for him to travel more than Sixteen measured Miles in one Day for the Performance of the Duties of such Churches or Chapels.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Bishop, upon the Application of any Rector, Vicar or Spiritual Person holding any Benefice, the whole Profit or Income of which shall have been allotted to the Curate, to allow such Rector, Vicar or Spiritual Person to deduct and retain therefrom, in any or such Year, so much Money, not exceeding in any Case One fourth Part of such Profit or Income, or of the Salary assigned to the Curate, as shall have been actually laid out and expended during the Year in the Repair of the Church, Parsonage, Vicarage or other House of Residence, and Premises and Appurtenances thereto belonging, in respect of which such Rector, Vicar or Person as aforesaid, or his Executors, Administrators or Assigns would be liable for Dilapidations to the Successors; and it shall also be lawful for the Bishop, in the Manner, so allow any Rector, Vicar or Spiritual Person aforesaid, having or holding any Benefice, the Profit or Income of which shall not exceed One hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum, to deduct and retain from the Salary allotted to the Curate, in each or any Year, so much Money as shall have been actually laid out and expended in such Repairs as aforesaid, over and above the Amount of the Surplus remaining of such Profit or Income, after Payment of the Salary allotted to the Curate, so that the Sum so deducted, after laying out such Surplus, shall not in any Year exceed One fourth Part of the Salary allotted to the Curate.

CXXV. And be it enacted, That whenever any Bankrupt is in Prison or in Custody, under any Process, Attachment, Execution, Commitment or Sentence, the Commissioners may, by Warrant under their Hands directed to the Person in whose Custody such Bankrupt is confined, cause such Bankrupt to be brought before them at any Meeting either public or private; and if any such Bankrupt is desirous to surrender, he shall be so brought up, and the Expense thereof shall be paid out of his Estate, and such Person shall be indemnified by the Warrant of the Commissioners for bringing up such Bankrupt; provided that the Assignees may appoint any Persons to attend such Bankrupt from time to time, and to produce to him his Books, Papers and Writings, in order to prepare an Abstract of his Accounts and Statements, to show the Particulars of his Estate and Effects previous to his final Examination and Discovery thereof, a Copy of which Abstract and Statement the said Bankrupt shall deliver to them Ten Days at least before his last Examination.

CXXVI. And be it enacted, That any Person wilfully concealing any Real or Personal Estate of the Bankrupt, and who shall not within Forty two Days after the issuing of the Commission discover such Estate to One or more of the Commissioners or Assignees, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and Double the Value of the Estate so concealed; and any Person who shall, after the Time allowed to the Bankrupt to surrender, voluntarily discover to One or more of the Commissioners or Assignees any Part of such Bankrupt's Estate, not before come to the Knowledge of the Assignees, shall be allowed Five per Cent thereon, and such further Reward as the major Part in Value of the Creditors present at any Meeting called for that Purpose shall think fit, to be paid out of the Estate recovered in such Discovery.

CXXVII. And be it enacted, That every Bankrupt who shall have duly surrendered, and in all Things conforming himself to the Laws in force concerning Bankrupts at the Time of making the Commission against him, shall be discharged from all Debts due by him when he becomes Bankrupt, and from all Claims and Demands hereby made provable under the Commission, in case he shall obtain a Certificate of such Conformity as aforesaid and allowed, and subject to such Provisions as hereafter directed; but no such Certificate shall release or discharge any Person who was Partner with such Bankrupt at the Time of his Bankruptcy, or who was then jointly bound, or had made any joint Contract with such Bankrupt.

CXXI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall not sign any Certificate unless they shall have Proof by Affidavit in Writing of the Signature of the Creditors thereto, and of any Person thereto authorized by any Creditor, and of the Authority by which such Person shall have so signed the same; and if any Creditor reside Abroad, the Authority of such Creditor shall be attested by a Notary Public: and every such Affidavit, Authority and Attestation shall be laid before the Lord Chancellor, with the Certificate, previous to the Allowance thereof.

An Act to amend an Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty for the more effectual Administration of the Office of a Justice of the Peace, and for the more effectual Prevention of Felonies within the District of Dublin Metropolis. [17th June 1824.]

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more effectual Administration of the Office of a Justice of the Peace, and for the more effectual Prevention of Felonies within the District of Dublin Metropolis, His Majesty's Courts of Dublin, and all Places within Eight Miles thereof, have been united in and now form One District, called 'The Police District of Dublin Metropolis' and conformably to the Provisions of the said Act in such Behalf, the said District hath been divided into and consists of Six Divisions, in each of which Divisions One Public Office is established, and to each of which Office are attached Three Divisional Justices, making in the whole Eighteen Divisional Justices, appointed and acting as such Justice, under the Authority of the said recited Act: And Whereas it may be expedient that the Number of the said Divisions and Public Offices, and the Number of the said Divisional Justices respectively, should be reduced: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at any Time after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, if he or they shall think fit so to do, by Warrant under Hand and Seal, to divide the Whole of the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis into Four Divisions, in lieu of the Six Divisions into which such District is at present divided, and to ascertain, direct, declare and define the Limits of such Four Divisions respectively, and to cause Four several Public Offices to be established, One thereof in and for each of such Four Divisions, and to cause such Four Divisions, and the Limits thereof, and the Offices thereof, to be changed from time to time, as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall think fit and proper, at his and their Will and Pleasure.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case and whenever the said Police District shall be divided into Four Divisions in Manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful so and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and he and they is and are hereby empowered and required, to select from and out of the Divisional Justices appointed or who may be appointed under the Authority and Provisions of the said recited Act, and who shall be acting as such Justice in any Two of such Division, such Twelve of the said Divisional Justices, consisting of Four Barristers, Four Aldermen of the City of Dublin, and Four Sheriff Peers or Members of the Common Council of the said City, as such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, in the Exercise of his or their Discretion, shall think proper; and that Three of such Divisional Justices, that is to say, One Barrister, One Alderman, and One Sheriff Peer or Member of the Common Council shall be attached to each of the said Four Police Offices to be established under this Act: Provided always, that Two of the said Four Aldermen, and Two of the said Four Sheriff Peers or Members of the said Common Council, so to be selected, shall be such Aldermen and Sheriff Peers or Members of the said Common Council as were originally elected by the Corporation of the City of Dublin, under the Provisions of the said recited Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That upon such Reduction it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered, in the Exercise of his or their Discretion, either to divide altogether and to supersede any Six of the Justices of the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis, that is to say, say Two Barristers, Two Aldermen and Two Sheriff Peers or Members of the Common Council, and also to discontinue or supersede the Clerks and Chief Constables of the Offices belonging to Two of the present Six Divisions of the said Police District, and to direct that any of such Justices, Clerks and Chief Constables respectively, shall be allowed and shall receive Two Thirds of their present Salaries respectively, for the Period of their several natural Lives, or otherwise to attach all or any of such Justices, Clerks and Chief Constables to some One or more of such Divisional Offices as shall remain or be established by virtue of this Act, to attend and act therein as Supernumerary Magistrates: Clerks and Chief Constables, receiving their full Salary; and the Vacancies in the Offices of the Twelve selected Divisional Justices shall, from time to time as they occur, be filled up from and out of such Superintendency Magistrates, so that finally there shall be but Twelve Divisional Justices: Provided always, that whenever any such Vacancy or Removal of a Barrister, and there shall not be any Barrister amongst such Superintendency Magistrates, or from the Death, Resignation or Removal of an Alderman, and there shall not be any Alderman amongst such Superintendency Magistrates, or from the Death, Resignation or Removal of a Sheriff Peer or Common Councilman, and there shall not be any Sheriff Peer or Common Councilman amongst such Superintendency Magistrates, then and in every such Case such Vacancy shall be filled up within One Calendar Month, by the Appointment of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, or by Election and Appointment in Manner in the said recited Act mentioned; and such Appointment shall be made by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, whenever the Vacancy is occasioned by the Death, Removal or Resignation of any Person originally appointed by him or them, or by his or their Predecessors; and such Election shall be made by the Corporation of the City of Dublin, in Manner directed by the said recited Act, whenever the Vacancy shall be occasioned by the Death, Removal or Resignation of any Person originally elected by them respectively; and being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that the Twelve Divisional Justices of such Four Divisions shall be appointed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and elected by the Corporation of the City of Dublin respectively, in the same Proportions as the Eighteen Divisional Justices under the said recited Act are directed to be appointed and elected, that is to say, that the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being shall appoint Eight out of such Twelve Divisional Justices, namely, Four Barrierted of at least Six Years Standing, Two Aldermen of the City of Dublin, and Two Persons being Sheriffs Peers or Members of the Common Council of the said City; and that the said Corporation of the City of Dublin shall elect the other Four Divisional Justices, to wit, Two Aldermen and Two Sheriffs Peers or Common Councilmen; and any Vacancies in the Office of Clerks or Chief Constables, or any of such Four Divisional Offices, shall from time to time as they occur, be filled up from and out of the Superintendency Clerks and Chief Constables acting under the Provisions of this Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Allowances of any Proportion of Salary to any Justice, Clerk or Chief Constable, expended under or by virtue of this Act, shall be charged and chargeable on the Funds applicable to the Establishment of the said Police; and that the Payment of any and every such annual Allowance shall altogether cease and be suspended during any Period while the Person to whom such Allowance shall be granted shall hold any Office, Place or Employment under His Majesty, or under the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, the Salary or Profit whereof shall be equal to or shall exceed the Salary which was enjoyed by such Person as such Justice, Clerk or Chief Constable at the Time of his vacating such Office respectively; and that the Payment of a proportional Part of such annual Allowance shall cease and be suspended during any Period while the Person to whom the same shall be granted shall hold any Office, Place or Employment under His Majesty, or under the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, the Salary or Profit whereof shall be less than the Salary which was enjoyed by such Person as such Justice, Clerk or Chief Constable, so that the Amount of such annual Allowance, together with the Salary and Profit of any such Office, Place or Employment, shall not together exceed the Amount of the Salary enjoyed by such Person at the Time of his being expended as aforesaid.

V. And be it declared and enacted, That from and after the Time when the Division of the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis shall be reduced from Six to Four, and the Divisional Justices shall be reduced from Eighteen to Twelve, in Execution of the Powers heretofore for that Purpose given, all and singular Enactments, Provisions, Clauses, Articles, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, shall be and continue to be in full Force, Operation and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the said recited Act had originally directed the Distribution of the said District into Four Divisions, instead of Six, and the Establishment of Four Public Offices, One thereof in each of the said Four Divisions, instead of Six Public Offices, and had likewise originally directed the Appointment and Election in Manner provided by the said recited Act, of Twelve Divisional Justices within the said District, instead of Eighteen Divisional Justices.

VI. And Whereas it is by the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of His late Majesty's Reign enacted, that in all Cases where any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, or Shares of Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, were by any Law then in Force, or should thereafter be limited and made payable to His said late Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or to any Descendants of Persons other than the Informer or Informers who should sue for the same, or the Party grieved, and which should be recoverable in a summary Way before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, the same should and might, within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, be sued for and recovered at some of the Police Offices to be established under the Authority of the said recited Act, before any Two of the Divisional Justices in such Act mentioned and described, and not before any Justice or Justices of the Peace out of the said Offices: And Whereas it was also by the said recited Act enacted, that in all Cases not therein otherwise particularly described, all Trials and Convictions in any Offences or Offence against that Act, should be commenced within the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis, should be had and made respectively in the Office of the Division in which they should respectively be committed, before not less than Two of the said Divisional Justices in such Division respectively: And Whereas the said Provisions in the said recited Act have been found inconvenient: Be it therefore enacted, That so

All Fines, Penalties, &c. recoverable in a summary Way, and all Trials for Offences (not otherwise directed) to be recovered and had before One Divisional Justice.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases where any Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures are by any Law in Force, or shall hereafter be limited and made payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or to any Description of Persons other than the Informers or Informers who shall sue for the same, or the Party aggrieved, and which shall be recoverable in a summary Way before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, the same shall and may, within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, be sued for and recovered at some One of the Police Offices within said District, before any One of the Divisional Justices at such Office, and not before any Justice or Justices of the Peace out of the said Office; and that all Trials and Convictions for any Offence against the said recited Act or this Act, in all Cases not therein or herein otherwise particularly directed, and which Offences shall be committed within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, may be had and made respectively in the Offices of the Divisions in which any such Offences shall respectively be committed, before any One of the said Divisional Justices in such Divisions respectively; and the Proceedings in such respective Cases, by and before such One Divisional Justice, shall be as effectual to all Intents and Purposes, and shall have the same Consequences and Results as to Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, or Shares of Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, and the Appropriation thereof, and the accounting for and paying the same into the Hands of the Receiver of the Public Offices, and in every other respect whosoever, as if had before Two Divisional Justices in Manner directed by the said recited Act, or as if the Jurisdiction herein given with respect to such Cases to One Divisional Justice, had been expressly so given in and by and had constituted Part of the said recited Act; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Powers and Jurisdiction of the Justices of the Castle Division extended to the whole Police District of the Dublin Metropolis.

VIII. And Whereas it will be advantageous that the Jurisdiction of the Divisional Justices of the Castle Division of the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis should be in all respects co-extensive with the Whole of the said Police District: Be it therefore enacted, That all the Powers, Jurisdictions and Authorities, of every Nature and Kind whatsoever, vested in or granted to the Divisional Justices of Police by virtue of the said recited Act of the Forty-eighth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, or by virtue of the present Act, or of any other Act or Acts, or otherwise in any Manner whatsoever, and which are or may be exercised by the Divisional Justices of the Division in which His Majesty's Castle of Dublin shall be situate, touching and in respect to Offences, Breaches of the Law, Disorders, Matters or Things committed, arising or taking place, or alleged to have been committed, or to have arisen or taken place within the Limits of the said Castle Division, shall and may be exercised by the said Divisional Justices of the said Castle Division or any of them, over, upon and in respect to such Offences, Breaches of the Law, Disorders, Matters and Things, in whatever Part of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis such Offences, Matters or Things shall have been committed, or shall have arisen or taken place, or shall be alleged to have been committed, arisen or taken place, although such Part of the said Police District shall not be locally situate within the Limits of the said Castle Division, and to all Intents and Purposes in every respect, as if such Offences, Matters or Things had been committed, or had arisen or taken place, or were alleged to have been committed, arisen or taken place, within the local Limits of the said Castle Division; any Thing in the said recited Act or in this Act, or in any other Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Justices of Castle Division to be Justices for Dublin, Wicklow, Kildare, and Meath.

IX. And Whereas the Apprehension of Traitors, Felons and other Offenders against the Law would be facilitated, and thereby the Administration of Justice be in many Instances rendered more certain, if the Divisional Justices of the Castle Division should have and exercise the Authority and Power of Justices of the Peace for the Counties immediately adjoining the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, each and every of the Divisional Justices for the Time being of the Division of the said Police District in which His Majesty's Castle of Dublin shall be situate, shall be to all Intents and Purposes, and shall be deemed and taken to be, and is hereby declared to be a Justice of the Peace within and for the Counties of Dublin, Wicklow, Kildare and Meath.

Constables, &c. of Police Division may receive Warrants of Justices of Castle Division in those Counties.

X. XXII. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and certain Acts thereon recited and referred to, the Provisional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis have now varied as then full Power and Authority to hear and determine to a summary Way all Disputes which may arise between Parol-brokers and any Harrower touching or concerning any Pawns or Pledge; but the said Divisional Justices have not Power or Authority to enforce the due Performance of such Determination or Adjudication, by reason whereof Divers ill-disposed Persons are enabled to avoid Justice: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, whenever any Dispute between any Parol-broker and any Harrower, touching or concerning any Pawns or Pledge, shall be determined by the said Divisional Justices or any Two of them, and any Sum of Money shall be awarded to be paid, it shall be lawful, in case of Non-payment of any such Sum of Money, for such Divisional Justices making such Determination, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cause the Amount of any Sum of Money so awarded to be paid, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Persons who shall be ordered to pay the same, and for want of sufficient Goods to satisfy such Sum, it shall be lawful for such Divisional Justices, by like Warrant, to commit the Person against whom any such Order or Award shall be made to any House of Correction within the said Police District, for any Period not exceeding One Calendar Month, or until such Sum shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

XXIII. XXIV. And for the better Administration of the Police within that Partion of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis consisting of the City of Dublin and those Parts of the County of Dublin which are contiguous thereto: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Constables of the Nightly Watch, and each of them, appointed or to be appointed under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, in the respective Watchhouses which they shall or may be appointed to attend, between the Hours of Eight in the Afternoon and Six in the Forenoon, to take Bail by Recognizance, without Fee or Reward, from any Person who shall be brought into the County of Dublin or any of them within the said Hours, without the Warrant of a Divisional or other Justice of the Peace, charged with any petty Misdemeanor, if such Constable shall deem it prudent to take such Bail, for the Appearance of such Person before the Divisional Justices, or One of them, at One of the said Public Offices, to be specified in the Recognizance, for Examination, at the Hour or Nine in the Forenoon next after such Recognizance shall be taken, unless that Hour shall fall on a Sunday, and in that Case at the like Hour on the succeeding Monday; and that every Recognizance so to be taken shall be of equal Obligation to the Parties coming into the same, and liable to the same Proceedings for the enforcing thereof, as if the same had been taken before One of the said Divisional Justices; and every such Constable respectively shall enter in a Book, to be kept for that Purpose in every Watchhouse, the Name, Residence and Occupation of any Party, and Na or her Sexes, entering into such Recognizance, together with the Condition thereof, and the Sums respectively acknowledged, and shall lay the same before such Divisional Justices or Justice as shall be present at the Time and Place when and where the Party is required to appear; and if the Party does not appear at the Time and Place required, or within One Hour after, the said Divisional Justices or Justice shall cause a Warrant of the Recognizance to be drawn up, to be signed by such Constable as aforesaid, and shall return the same to the next Central or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the City of Dublin, or for the County of Douglas respectively, as the Court may require, in which the Offence charged should be brought to Trial, with a Certificate at the Back thereof, signed by each Divisional Justice or Justices, that the Party has not complied with the Obligation therein contained, and the Clerk of the Peace shall make the like Extracts and Schedules of every such Recognizance, as of Recognizances forfeited in the Sessions of the Peace, and if the Party not appearing shall apply by any Person on his Behalf to postpone the Hearing of the Charge against such Party, and the Divisional Justice or Justice shall think fit to concern therein, the said Justice or Justice shall be at Liberty to enlarge the Recognizance to such further Time as they or he shall appoint; and when the Matter shall be heard and determined, either by the Dismissal of the Complaint, or by binding the Party over to answer the Matter thereof at the Sessions, or other Court of competent Jurisdiction for the Trial thereof, the Recognizance for the Party's Appearance before the Divisional Justice or Justice shall be discharged without Fee or Reward.

Convention to the Treaty with Portugal, dated July 28th 1817.

HIS Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Portugal, Brazil and Algarves, adhering to the Principles which they have manifested in the Declaration of the Congress of Vienna bearing Date the Eighth of February One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and being desirous to fulfil faithfully, and to their utmost Extent, the Engagements which they mutually contracted by the Treaty of the Twenty second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and till the Period shall arrive when, according to the Terms of the Fourth Article of the said Treaty, His Most Faithful Majesty has reserved to himself, in concert with His Britannic Majesty, to fix the Time when the Trade in Slaves shall cease entirely and be prohibited in his Dominions; and His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Portugal, Brazil and Algarves, having bound himself by the Second Article of the said Treaty to adopt the Measures necessary to prevent His Subjects from all illicit Traffic in Slaves; and His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland having on his Part engaged, in Co-operation with His Most Faithful Majesty, to employ effectual Means to prevent Portuguese Vessels trading in Slaves, in Conformity with the Laws of Portugal and the existing Treaties, from suffering any Loss or Hindrance from British Cruisers, their said Majesties have accordingly resolved to proceed to the Arrangement of a Convention for the Attainment of those Objects, and have therefore named as Plenipotentiaries for her, viz.

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Robert Stewart Viscount Castlereagh, a Member of His said Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, Colonel of the London and Regiments of Militia, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and His Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Portugal, Brazil and Algarves, the Most Illustrious and Most Excellent Lord Don Pedro de Sousa Holstein, Count of Palmella, Counsellor of His said Majesty, Captain of the German Company of His Royal Guards, Commander of the Order of Christ, Grand Cross of the Order of Charles the Third of Spain, and his Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in His Britannic Majesty; who, after having exchanged their respective full Powers, found to be in good and due Form, have agreed upon the following Articles:—

Article the First.—The Object of this Convention is, on the Part of the Two Governments, mutually to prevent their respective Subjects from carrying on an illicit Slave Trade.

The Two High Contracting Powers declare, that they consider as illicit any Traffic in Slaves carried on under the following Circumstances:

1st Either by British Ships, and under the British Flag, or for the Account of British Subjects, by any Vessel or under any Flag whatsoever.

2^d By Portuguese Vessels, in any of the Harbours or Roads of the Coast of Africa which are prohibited by the First Article of the Treaty of the Twenty second January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

3^d Under the Portuguese or Spanish Flag for the Account of the Subjects of any other Government.

1st The Territories possessed by the Crown of Portugal upon the Coast of Africa to the South of the Equator: that is to say, upon the Eastern Coast of Africa, the Territory lying between Cape Delgado and the Bay of Lourenço Marques; and upon the Western Coast, all that which is situated from the Eighth to the Eighteenth Degree of South Latitude.

2^d Those Territories on the Coast of Africa to the South of the Equator, over which His Most Faithful Majesty has declared that he has retained his Rights: namely.

The

1 The Territories of Mozambique and Calicut upon the Eastern Coast of Africa, from the Fifth Degree
2 Twelfth Minute to the Eighth Degree South Latitude.

3 Article the Third.—His Most Faithful Majesty engages, within the Space of Two Months after the 4 Exchange of the Ratifications of this present Convention, to promulgate in His Capital, and in the other
5 Parts of His Dominions, as soon as possible, a Law which shall prescribe the Punishment of any of His 6 Subjects who may in future participate in an illicit Traffic of Slaves, and at the same Time to remove the 7 Prohibition which already exists, to export Slaves into the Brazils under any Flag other than that of 8 Portugal; and His Most Faithful Majesty engages to assentiate as much as possible the Legislations of 9 Portugal in this respect to that of Great Britain.

11 Point of the African Coast where this Traffic will continue to be lawful, must be provided with a Royal 12 Passport, conformable to the Model annexed to this present Convention, and which Model forms an 13 integral Part of the same. The Passport must be written in the Portuguese Language, with an authentic 14 Translation in English annexed thereto, and it must be signed for those Vessels sailing from the Port of 15 Rio Janeiro by the Minister of Marine; and for all other Vessels which may be intended for the said
16 Traffic, and which may sail from any other Parts of the Brazils, or from any other of the Dominions of

21 Article the Fifth.—The Two High Contracting Powers, for the more complete Attainment of their 22 Object, namely, the Prevention of all illicit Traffic in Slaves on the Part of their respective Subjects, 23 mutually consent that the Ships of War of their Royal Navies, which shall be provided with Special
24 Instructions for this Purpose, as hereinafter is provided, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two 25 Nations as may be suspected, upon reasonable Grounds, of having Slaves on board, seized by an 26 illicit Traffic, and in the Event only of their actually finding Slaves on board may detain and bring away
27 such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial before the Tribunals established for this Purpose, 28 as shall hereinafter be specified.

29 Provided always, that the Commanders of the Ships of War of the Two Royal Navies, who shall be 30 employed on this Service, shall adhere strictly to the exact Tenor of the Instructions which they shall 31 have received for this Purpose.

32 As this Article is entirely reciprocal, the Two High Contracting Parties engage mutually to make
33 good any Losses with † their respective Subjects who incur unjustly, by the arbitrary and illegal Detention 34 of their Vessels.

35 It being understood that this indemnity shall invariably be borne by the Government whose Cruiser
36 shall have been guilty of the arbitrary Detention; Provided always, that the Visit and Detention of 37 Slave Ships, specified in this Article, shall only be effected by their British or Portuguese Vessels which 38 may form Part of the Two Royal Navies, and by those only of such Vessels which are provided with the 39 Special Instructions annexed to the present Convention.

40 Article the Sixth.—No British or Portuguese Cruiser shall detain any Slave Ship not having Slaves
41 actually on board; and in order to render ineffect the Detention of any Ship, whether British or Portu-
42 guese, the Slaves found on board such Vessel must have been brought there for the express Purpose of 43 the Traffic, and those on board Portuguese Ships must have been taken from that Part of the Coast of 44 Africa where the Slave Trade was prohibited by the Treaty of the Twelfth second of January One thousand 45 eight hundred and fifteen.

46 Article the Seventh.—All Ships of War of the Two Nations, which shall hereafter be destined to 47 prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished by their own Government with a Copy of the 48 Instructions annexed to the present Convention, and which shall be considered as an integral Part 49 thereof.

50 These Instructions shall be written in Portuguese and English and signed for the Vessels of each of 51 the Two Powers by the Ministers of their respective Marine.

52 The Two High Contracting Parties reserve the Faculty of altering the said Instructions, in Whole or 53 in Part, according to Circumstances; it being however well understood, that the said Alterations cannot 54 take place but by common Agreement, and by the Consent of the Two High Contracting Parties.

55 Article the Eighth.—In order to bring to Adjudication, with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the 56 Vessels which may be detained for having been engaged in an illicit Traffic of Slaves, there shall be es-
57 tablished, within the Space of a Year at furthest from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present
58 Convention, Two Mixed Commissions, formed of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two Nations, 59 named for this Purpose by their respective Sovereigns.

60 These Commissions shall reside, one in a Province belonging to His Britannic Majesty, the other 61 within the Territories of His Most Faithful Majesty; and the Two Governments, at the Period of the 62 Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Convention, shall declare, each for its own Dominion, in 63 what Places the Commissions shall respectively reside. Each of the Two High Contracting Parties re-
64 serving to itself the Right of changing at its Pleasure the Place of Residence of the Commission held 65 within its own Dominions; provided, however, that One of the Two Commissions shall always be held 66 upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in the Brazils.

† These

These Commissions shall judge the Cases submitted to them without Appeal, and according to the Regulations and Instructions annexed to the present Convention, of which they shall be considered as an integral Part.

Article the Ninth.—His Britannic Majesty, in Conformity with the Stipulations of the Treaty of the Twenty second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, engages to grant, in the Manner hereafter explained, sufficient Indemnification to all the Proprietors of Portuguese Vessels and Cargoes captured by British Cruizers between the First of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the Period at which the Two Commissions pointed out in Article VIII. of the present Convention, shall assemble at their respective Ports.

The Two High Contracting Parties agree, that all Claims of the Nature herebefore mentioned shall be received and liquidated by a Mixed Commission, to be held at London, and which shall consist of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two Nations, named by their respective Sovereigns, and upon the same Principles stipulated by the Eighth Article of the Additional Convention, and by the other Acts which form an integral Part of the same. The aforesaid Commission shall commence their Functions Six Months after the Ratification of the present Convention, or sooner if possible.

The Two High Contracting Parties have agreed, that the Proprietors of Vessels captured by the British Cruizers cannot claim Compensation for a larger Number of Slaves than that which, according to the existing Laws of Portugal, they were permitted to transport, according to the Rate of Tonnage of the captured Vessel.

The Two High Contracting Parties are equally agreed, that every Portuguese Vessel captured with Slaves on board for the Traffic, which shall be proved to have been embarked within the Territories of the Coast of Africa situated to the North of Cape Palmas, and not belonging to the Crown of Portugal, as well as all Portuguese Vessels captured with Slaves on board for the Traffic Six Months after the Exchange of the Ratification of the Treaty of the Twenty second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and on which it can be proved, that the aforesaid Slaves were embarked in the Roadsteads of the Coast of Africa situated to the North of the Equator, shall not be entitled to claim any Indemnification.

Article the Tenth.—His Britannic Majesty engages to pay within the Space of a Year at farthest from the Decision of each Case, to the Individual having a just Claim to the same, the Sum which shall be granted to them by the Commission named in the preceding Article.

Article the Eleventh.—His Britannic Majesty formally engages to pay the Three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling of Indemnification, stipulated by the Convention of the Treaty first of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in favour of the Proprietors of Portuguese Vessels captured by British Cruizers up to the Period of the First of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the Manner following; viz.

The first Payment of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling Six Months after the Exchange of the Ratification of the present Convention, and the remaining One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling, as well as the Interest at Five per Cent. due upon the total Sum from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Convention of the Twenty first of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, shall be paid Nine Months after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Convention. The Interest due shall be payable up to the Day of the last Payment. All the aforesaid Payments shall be made in London to the Minister of His Most Faithful Majesty at the Court of His Britannic Majesty, or to the Person whom His Most Faithful Majesty shall think proper to authorize for that Purpose.

Article the Twelfth.—The Acts or Instruments annexed to this Additional Convention, and which form an integral Part thereof, are as follow:

No. 1. Form of Passport for the Portuguese Merchant Ships destined for the lawful Traffic in Slaves.
No. 2. Instructions for the Ships of War of both Nations destined to prevent the illegal Traffic in Slaves.

No. 3. Regulation for the Mixed Commissions which are to hold their Sittings on the Coast of Africa, at the Mozambique, and in London.

Article the Thirteenth.—The present Convention shall be ratified, and the Ratifications thereof exchanged at Rio Janeiro, within the Space of Four Months at farthest, dating from the Day of its Signature.

In Witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have thereunto affixed the Seal of their Arms.

Done at London, the Twenty eighth Day of July in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

Instructions for British and Portuguese
Ships of War.

Instructions intended for the British and Portuguese Ships of War employed to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves.

Article I.—Every British or Portuguese Ship of War shall, in Conformity with Article V. of the Additional Convention of this Date, have a Right to visit the Merchant Ships of either of the Two Powers actually engaged or suspected to be engaged in the Slave Trade: and should any Slaves be found on board according to the Tenor of the Sixth Article of the aforesaid Additional Convention,—and as to what regards the Portuguese Vessels, should there be ground to suspect that the said Slaves have been embarked as a Part of the Coast of Africa where the Traffic in Slaves can no longer be legally carried on, in consequence of the Prohibitions in force betwixt the Two High Powers, in these Cases alone the Commander of the said Ship of War may detain them; and having detained them, he is to bring them as soon as possible for Judgment before that of the Two Mixed Commissions appointed by the Eighth Article of the Additional Convention of this Date, which shall be the nearest, or which the Commander of the capturing Ship shall, upon his own Responsibility, think he can easiest reach from the Spot where the Slave Ship shall have been detained.

Ships on board of which no Slaves shall be found intended for Purposes of Traffic, shall not be detained whilst in the Port or Roadstead belonging to either of the Two High Contracting Powers.

Negro Servants or Sailors that may be found on board the said Vessels, cannot, in any Case, be deemed a sufficient Cause for Detention.

Article II.—No Merchantman or Slave Ship can, on any Account or Pretence whatever, be seized or detained whilst in the Port or Roadstead belonging to either of the Two High Contracting Powers, or within Cannon shot of the Batteries on Shore. But in case suspicious Vessels should be found so circumstanced, proper representations may be addressed to the Authorities of the Country, requesting them to take effectual Measures for preventing such Abuses.

Article III.—The High Contracting Powers having in view the immense Extent of the Shores of Africa to the North of the Equator along which this Commerce continues prohibited, and the Facility thereby afforded for illicit Traffic on Points where either the total Abolition or at least the Distance of lawful Authorities has ready Access to those Authorities, in order to prevent it, have agreed, for the more readily attaining the salutary End which they propose, to grant, and they do mutually grant to each other the Power, without prejudice to the Rights of Sovereignty, to visit and detain, as if on the High Seas, any

* This Article is to be promulgated in pursuance of the Third Article of the Additional Convention of the 26th July 1815.

† There is no Art. the Article of the 24th of November 1815, or any other Portuguese Law which may hereafter be promulgated in this behalf.

Vessel having Slaves on board, even within Canaan west of the Shore of their respective Territories on the Continent of Africa to the South of the Equator, in case of there being no Local Authorities to whom Recourse might be had, as has been stated in the preceding Article. In such Cases, Vessels as aforesaid may be brought before the Mixed Commissions, in the Manner prescribed in the first Article of the preceding Instructions.

Article IV.—No Portuguese Merchantman or Slave Ship shall, on any Pretence whatever, be detained, which shall be found any where near the Land, or on the High Seas, South of the Equator, unless after a Chase that shall have commenced North of the Equator.

Article V.—Portuguese Vessels furnished with a regular Passport, having Slaves on board, shipped at some Parts of the Coast of Africa where the Trade is permitted to Portuguese Subjects, and which shall afterwards be found North of the Equator, shall not be detained by the Ships of War of the Two Nations, though furnished with the present Instructions, provided the same are account for their Course, either in Conformity with the Practice of the Portuguese Navigation, by steering some Degrees to the Northward in search of fair Winds, or for other legitimate Causes, such as the Danger of the Seas duly proved; or lastly, in the Case of their Passports proving that they were bound for a Portuguese Port not within the Continent of Africa: Provided always, that with regard to all Slave Ships detained in the North of the Equator, the Proof of the Legality of the Voyage is to be furnished by the Vessel so detained. On the other Hand, with respect to Slave Ships detained to the South of the Equator, in Conformity with the Stipulations of the preceding Article, the Proof of the Legality of the Voyage is to be exhibited by the Captain.

It is in like Manner stipulated, that the Number of Slaves found on board a Slave Ship by the Cruisers, even should the Number not agree with that contained in their Passport, shall not be a sufficient Reason to justify the Detention of the Ship, but the Captain and the Proprietor shall be denounced in the Portuguese Tribunals in the Brazil, in order to their being punished according to the Laws of the Country.

Article VI.—Every Portuguese Vessel intended to be employed in the legal Traffic in Slaves, in Conformity with the Principles laid down in the Additional Convention of this Date, shall be commanded by a Native Portuguese, and Two Thirds at least of the Crew shall likewise be Portuguese: Provided always, that in Portuguese or Foreign Construction shall in no wise affect its Nationality, and that the Negro Sailors shall always be reclaimed as Portuguese, provided they belong, as Slaves, to Subjects of the Crown of Portugal, or that they have been enfranchised in the Dominions of His Most Excellent Majesty.

Article VII.—Whenever a Ship of War shall meet a Merchant Vessel liable to be searched, it shall be done in the most mild Manner, and with every Attention which is due between allied and friendly Nations: and in no Case shall the Search be made by an Officer holding a Rank inferior to that of Lieutenant in the Navy.

Article VIII.—The Ships of War which may detain the Slave Ships, in pursuance of the Principles laid down in the present Instructions, shall leave on board all the Cargo of Negroes unsearched, as well as the Captain and a Part at least of the Crew of the above mentioned Slave Ship: the Captain shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall exhibit the State in which he found the detained Ship, and the Charges which may have taken place in it; he shall deliver to the Captain of the Slave Ship a signed Certificate of the Papers seized on board the said Vessel, as well as of the Number of Slaves found on board at the moment of Detention.

The Negroes shall not be disembarked till after the Vessels which contain them shall be arrived at the Place where the Legality of the Capture is to be tried by One of the Two Mixed Commissions, in order that in the Event of their not being adjudged legal Prizes, the Loss of the Proprietors may be more easily repaired. If, however, urgent Motives, deduced from the Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes, or other Causes, required that they should be disembarked entirely, or in part, before the Vessels could arrive at the Place of Residence of One of the said Commissions, the Commander of the capturing Ship may take on himself the Responsibility of such Disembarkations, provided that the Necessity be stated in a Certificate in proper Form.

Article IX.—No Conveyance of Slaves from one Part of the Brazil to another, or from the Continents or Islands of Africa to the Possessions of Portugal out of America, shall take place as Objects of Commerce, except in Ships provided with Passports from the Portuguese Government at Rio.

Done at London, the Twenty eighth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

Regulations for the Mixed Commissions, which are to sit on the Coast of Africa, on the Brazil's and at London.

Regulations for Mixed Commissions to sit at Portugal.

Article I.—The Mixed Commissions to be established by the Additional Convention of this Date, upon the Coast of Africa and in the Brazil, are appointed to decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Slave Vessels as the Cruisers of both Nations shall detain, in pursuance of this same Convention, for carrying on an illicit Commerce in Slaves.

The above mentioned Commission shall judge, without Appeal, according to the Letter and Spirit of the Treaty of the Twenty second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and of the Additional Convention to the said Treaty, signed at London, on the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

1 The Commission shall give Sentence as summarily as possible, and they are required to decide (as
 2 far as they shall find it practicable) within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from that on which
 3 every detained Vessel shall have been brought into the Port where they shall reside, First, upon the 4 Legality of the Capture; Second, in the Case in which the captured Vessel shall have been Liberated, 5 as to the Indemnification which she is to receive.

6 And it is hereby provided, that in all Cases the final Sentence shall not be delayed on the Account
 7 of the Absence of Witnesses, or for want of other Proof, beyond the Period of Two Months, except 8 upon the Application of any of the Parties interested, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to 9 charge themselves with the Expenses and Risks of the Delay, the Commissioners may, at their Dis-
 10 cretion, grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months.

11 Article II.—Each of the above mentioned Mixed Commissions, which are to reside on the Coast of 12 Africa, and in the Bights, shall be composed in the following Manner:

13 The Two High Contracting Parties shall each of them name a Commissary Judge, and a Com-14 missioner of Arbitration, who shall be authorized to hear and to decide, without Appeal, all Cases of 15 Capture of Slave Vessels which, in pursuance of the Stipulation of the Additional Convention of this 16 Date, may be had before them. All the essential Parts of the Proceedings carried on before these 17 Mixed Commissions shall be written down in the Language of the Country in which the Commission 18 may reside.

19 The Commissary Judges and the Commissioners of Arbitration shall make Oath, in Presence of the 20 Principal Magistrate of the Place in which the Commission may reside, to judge fairly and faithfully, 21 to have no Preference, either for the Claimants of the Captors, and to act, in all their Decisions, in pur-
 22 suance of the Stipulations of the Treaty of the Twenty second January One thousand eight hundred 23 and fifteen, and of the Additional Convention of the said Treaty.

24 There shall be attached to each Commission a Secretary or Registrar, appointed by the Sovereign
 25 of the Country in which the Commission may reside, who shall register all its Acts, and who, previous to 26 his taking charge of his Post, shall make Oath, in Presence of at least One of the Commissary Judges, 27 to conduct himself with Respect for their Authority, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which 28 may belong to his Charge.

29 Article III.—The Form of Process shall be as follows:

30 The Commissary Judges of the Two Nations shall, in the first Place, proceed to the Examination 31 of the Report of the Vessel, and to receive the Depositions on Oath of the Captain, and of Two 32 or Three, at least, of the principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the De-33 claration on Oath of the Captor, should it appear necessary, in order to be able to judge and 34 to pronounce if the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the 35 Additional Conventions of this Date, and in order that, according to this Judgement, it may be con-
 36 sidered or liberated; And in the Event of the Two Commissary Judges not agreeing on the Sentence
 37 they ought to pronounce, whether as to the Legality of the Detention or the Indemnification to be 38 allowed, or on any other Question which might result from the Stipulations of the Convention of this 39 Date, —they shall draw by Lot the Name of One of the Two Commissioners of Arbitration, who, after 40 having considered the Documents of the Process, shall consult with the above mentioned Commissary
 41 Judges on the Case in question, and the final Sentence shall be pronounced conformably to the Opinion
 42 of the Majority of the above mentioned Commissary Judges, and of the above mentioned Commissioner 43 of Arbitration.

44 Article IV.—As often as the Cargo of Slaves found on board of a Portuguese Slave Ship shall 45 have been embarked on any Point whatever of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade continues 46 lawful to the Subjects of the Crown of Portugal, such Slave Ship shall not be detained on Pretence that 47 she above mentioned Slaves have been brought originally by Land from any other Part whatever of the 48 Continent.

49 Article V.—In the substantiated Declaration which the Captor shall make before the Commission, as 50 well as in the Certificate of the Papers aforesaid, which shall be delivered to the Captain of the captured
 51 Vessel at the Time of the Detention, the above mentioned Captor shall be bound to declare his Name, 52 the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall 53 have taken place, and the Number of Slaves found living on board of the Slave Ship at the Time of the 54 Detention.

55 Article VI.—As soon as Sentence shall have been passed, the detained Vessel, if Liberated, and what 56 remains of the Cargo, shall be restored to the Proprietors, who may before the same Commission claim a 57 Reimbursement of the Damages which they may have a Right to demand; the Captor himself, and in his De-58 fault his Government, shall remain responsible for the above mentioned Damages. The Two High Con-59 tracting Parties bind themselves to defray, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the Sentence, the 60 Indemnifications which may be granted by the above named Commission, it being understood that those 61 Indemnifications shall be at the Expense of the Power of which the Captor shall be a Subject.

62 Article VII.—In case of the Condemnation of a Vessel for an unlawful Voyage, she shall be declared
 63 lawful Prize, as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves
 64 who may be on board as Objects of Commerce; and the said Vessel, as well as her Cargo, shall be sold 65 by public Sale, for the Profit of the Two Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the 66 Mixed Commission a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government on 67 whose Territory the Commission which shall have so judged them shall be established, to be employed as Slaves or free Labourers. Each of the Two Governments bind itself to guarantee the Liberty of such Persons of these Individuals as shall be respectively assigned to it.

Article VIII.—Every Claim for Compensation of Losses occasioned to Ships suspected of carrying on Illicit Trade in Slaves, not tendered as lawful Prize by the Mixed Commissions, shall be also heard and judged by the above named Commissions, in the Form provided by the Third Article of the present Regulation; and in all Cases wherein Regulation shall be so desired, the Commission shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, or his or their lawful Attorney or Attorneys, for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification:—First, for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention; that is to say, in case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified; First, for the Ship, her Tackle, Apparel and Stores; Secondly, for all Freight due and payable; Thirdly, for the Value of the Cargo of Merchandise, if any; Fourthly, for the Staves on board at the Time of Detention, according to the computed Value of such Staves at the Place of Destination; deducting therefrom the usual fair average Mortality for the unexpired Period of the regular Voyage; deducting also for all Charges and Expenses payable upon the Sale of such Cargoes, including Commission of Sale when payable at such Port; and, Fifthly, for all other regular Charges in Cases of total Loss; and in all other Cases not of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified,—First, for all special Damages and Expenses occasioned to the Ship by the Detention, and for Loss of Freight when due or payable. Secondly, a Detourage when due, according to the Schedule annexed to the present Article; Thirdly, a daily Allowance for the Subsistence of Slaves, of One Shilling, or One hundred and eighty Rub for each Person, without Distinction of Sex or Age, for so many Days as it shall appear to the Commission that the Voyage has been or may be delayed by reason of such Detention; as, likewise, Fourthly, for any Detention of Cargo or Slaves; Fifthly, for any Detention in the Value of the Cargo or Slaves, proceeding from an increased Mortality beyond the average Amount of the Voyage, or from Sickness occasioned by Detention;—this Value to be ascertained by their computed Price at the Place of Destination, as in the above Case of total Loss; Sixthly, an Allowance of Five per Cent. on the Amount of Capital employed in the Purchase and Maintenance of Cargo, for the Period of Delay occasioned by the Detention; and, Seventhly, for all Premiums of Insurance on additional Risks.

The Claimant or Claimants shall likewise be entitled to Interest at the Rate of Five per Cent. per Annum on the Sum awarded, until paid by the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs: the whole Amount of such Indemnifications being calculated in the Money of the Country to which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at Exchange Current at the Time of a Award, excepting the Sum for the Subsistence of Slaves, which shall be paid at Par, as above stipulated.

The Two High Contracting Parties wishing to avoid, as much as possible, every Species of Fraud in the Execution of the Additional Convention of this Date, have agreed, that if it should be proved in a Manner evident to the Conviction of the Judges of the Two Nations, and without having recourse to the Decision of a Commissioner of Arbitration, that the Capture has been led into Error by a voluntary and reprehensible Fault on the Part of the Captain of the detained Ship; in that Case only, the detained Ship shall not have the Right of receiving, during the Days of her Detention, the Detourage stipulated by the present Article.

and as in proportion.

Article IX.—When the Proprietors of a Ship suspected of carrying on an Illicit Trade in Slaves, released in consequence of a Sentence of One of the Mixed Commissions (or in the Case, as above mentioned, of total Loss), shall claim Indemnification for the Loss of Slaves which he may have suffered, he shall in no Case be entitled to claim for more than the Number of Slaves which his Vessel was by the Portuguese Laws authorized to carry, which Number shall always be declared in his Papers.

Article X.—The Mixed Commission established in London by the Article XIth of the Convention of this Date, shall hear and determine all Claims for Portuguese Ships and Cargoes captured by British Cruisers on account of the unlawful trading in Slaves, since the First of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, till the Period when the Convention of this Date is to be in complete Execution, awarding to them, conformably to the Article IXth of the Additional Convention of this Date, a just and complete Compensation, upon the Basis laid down in the preceding Article, either for total Loss, or for Losses and Damages sustained by the Owners and Proprietors of the said Ships and Cargoes. The said Commission established in London shall be composed and proceed exactly upon the same Basis determined in the Articles 1, 2 and 3, of the present Regulation for the Commissions established on the Coast of Africa and the Avants.

Article XI.—It shall not be permitted to any of the Circuitary Judges, nor to the Arbitrators, nor to the Secretary of any of the Mixed Commissions, to demand or receive, from any one of the Parties concerned concerned in the Sentences which they shall pronounce, any Enslavement, under any Pretext whatsoever, or for the Performance of the Duties which are imposed upon them by the present Regulation.

Article XII.—When the Parties interested shall imagine they have cause to complain of any evident Injustice on the Part of the Mixed Commissions, they may represent it to their respective Governments, who reserve to themselves the Right of mutual Correspondence for removing, when they think fit, the Individuals who may compose these Commissions.

Article XIII.—In the Case of a Vessel detained unjustly, under Pretence of the Stipulations of the Additional Convention of this Date, and in which the Captain should neither be authorized by the Treaty of the above mentioned Convention, nor of the Instructions annexed to it, the Government to which the Detained Vessel may belong shall be entitled to demand Reparation; and in such Case, the Government to which the Captain may belong binds itself to cause the Subject of Complaint to be fully exonerated, and to satisfy upon the Captain, if he be found to have deserved it, a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed.

Article XIV.—The Two High Contracting Parties have agreed, that in the Event of the Death of One or more of the Commissioners, Judges and Arbitrators, composing the above mentioned Mixed Commissions, their Posts shall be supplied, in vacante, in the following Manner; on the Part of the British Government, the Vacancies shall be filled successively in the Commission which shall at within the Possessions of His Britannic Majesty, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in that Colony, by the principal Magistrate of the Place, and by the Secretary; and in the Branch by the British Consul and Vice Consul resident in the City in which the Mixed Commission may be established.

On the Part of Portugal, the Vacancies shall be supplied, in the Branch, by each Province as the Captain General of the Province shall name for that Purpose; and, considering the Difficulty which the Portuguese Government would find, in naming fit Persons to fill the Post, which might become vacant in the Commission established in the British Possessions, it is agreed, that in case of the Death of the Portuguese Commissioners, Judges or Arbitrators in those Possessions, the remaining Individuals of the above mentioned Commission shall be equally authorized to proceed to the Judgment of such Slave Ships as may be brought before them, and to the Execution of their Sentence. In One Case alone, however, the Parties interested shall have the Right of appealing from the Sentence, if they think fit, to the Commission resident in the Branch; and the Government to which the Captain shall belong shall be bound fully to obey the Informations which shall be due to them, if the Appeal be judged in favour of the Claimants; it being well understood, that the Ship and Cargo shall remain during that Appeal in the Place of Residence of the first Commission before whom they may have been conducted.

The High Contracting Parties have agreed to supply, as soon as possible, every Vacancy that may arise in the above mentioned Commissions, from Death or any other Contingency. And in case that the Vacancy of each of the Portuguese Commissioners residing in the British Possessions be not supplied at the End of Six Months, the Vessels which are taken there to be judged, after the Expiration of that Term, shall no longer have the Right of Appeal herebefore explained.

Declaration, signed the Third Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, touching Memoranda and Articles, as described in the Convention of the Twenty eighth July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, between His Majesty and His Most Faithful Majesty.

Whereas a Convention, having for its Object the Prohibition of the Slave Traffic in Slaves, was concluded between His Britannic Majesty and His Most Faithful Majesty, and signed at London on the 29th of July 1817:—

And Whereas by the Second Article of that Convention, the Traffic in Slaves was declared still to be permitted to Portuguese Subjects, only within certain Territories therein described.

And

And Whereas the Territories of Molaino and Cabudo are described by that Article to be on the Eastern Coast of Africa; and Whereas that Description is evidently a verbal Mistake, the said Territories of Molaino and Cabudo lying in fact upon the Western and not upon the Eastern Coast of Africa :—

It is hereby declared by the undersigned, that the Word 'Eastern' in that Part of the Second Article above alluded to, shall be held to be cancelled, and the Word 'Western' to stand in its Place; and the latter Part of the Article in question shall accordingly be held to run thus :—

'The Territories of Molaino and Cabudo upon the Western Coast of Africa, from the Fifth Degree Twelve Minutes to the Eighth Degree South Latitude.'

It was further agreed between the undersigned, that the present Declaration shall be considered as an integral Part of the said Convention.

In Witness and in Faith of the above, the undersigned, His Britannic Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and His Most Faithful Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of St. James's, have hereunto set their Hands and Seals, at London, this Third Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

Additional Article to the Convention between His Britannic Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty, signed at London on the Twenty eighth of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen: signed at London Fifteenth Month One thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

Additional Article to the Convention with Portugal, dated March 25, 1827.

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Portugal, Brazil and Algarves, wishing to remove every Obstacle to the faithful Execution of the Convention signed in London by their respective Plenipotentiaries on the Twenty eighth of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the Purpose of preventing their Subjects from engaging in any illicit Traffic in Slaves, and recognizing the Necessity, to that Intent, of certain Articles to the said Convention, have for this Purpose named their Plenipotentiaries; that is to say, His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Edward Michael Ward Esquire, His Charge d'Affaires at the Court of Lisbon; and His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Portugal, Brazil and Algarves, Joaõ Baptista Rodrigues Knight, professed in the Order of Christ, and Chief Clerk of the Department of State for Foreign Affairs; who, after having exchanged their respective full Powers, found to be in good and due Form, have agreed upon the following Articles :—

Article I.—Whereas it is stated in the First Article of the Instructions issued for the British and Portuguese Ships of War employed to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves, that "Ships on board of which no Slaves shall be found intended for the Purposes of Traffic, shall not be detained on any Account or Pretence whatsoever;" And Whereas it has been found by Experience, that Vessels employed in the illegal Traffic have put their Slaves on board, immediately prior to their being visited by Ships of War, and that such Vessels have thus found Means to evade Forfeiture, and have been enabled to pursue their unlawful Course with Impunity, contrary to the true Object and Spirit of the Convention of the Twenty eighth of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen; the Two High Contracting Parties therefore feel it necessary to declare, and it is hereby declared by them, that if there shall be clear and undeniable Proof that a Slave or Slaves of either Sex has or have been put on board a Vessel for the Purpose of illegal Traffic in the particular Voyage on which the Vessel is captured, then and so that Account, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the Provisions of the above mentioned Convention, such Vessel shall be detained by the Cruizers, and lawfully condemned by the Commissioners.

Article II.—Inasmuch as the Convention of the Twenty eighth of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen does not stipulate the Mode of applying the Absence of the Commissioners occurring from any other Cause besides that of Death, which is the only Case provided for by the Fourteenth Article of the Regulation for the Mixed Commission annexed to the said Convention; the Two High Contracting Parties have agreed, that in the Event of the Death, or of the Absence on account of Illness, or any other unavoidable Cause, of any of the Commissioners, Judges or Arbitrators, or in the Case of their Absence in consequence of Leave from their Government, which must be notified to the respective Commission, their Posts shall be supplied in the same Form and Manner as is determined for the Case of Death by the above mentioned Fourteenth Article of the said Regulation.

These additional Articles shall have the same Force and Effect, as if they were inserted Word for Word in the said Convention, and shall be considered as forming Part of the same; they shall be ratified, and the Ratifications thereof exchanged at Lisbon, within Three Months at latest after the Date of their Signature.

In Witness whereof, the undersigned, being furnished with full Powers to that Effect, have signed these Articles, and fixed thereto the Seal of their Arms.

TREATY

Treaty with Spain, dated
Sept. 28, 1822.

• TREATY between His Britannic Majesty and His Catholic Majesty, for preventing their Subjects from engaging in any illicit Traffic in Slaves. Signed at Madrid, the Twenty-third of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two.

• IN the Name of the Most Holy Trinity: It having been stated, in the Second additional Article of the Treaty signed at Madrid, on the Fifth Day of July of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, between His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of Spain and the Indies, that " His Catholic Majesty consents, in the fullest Manner, in the Sentiments of His Britannic Majesty, with respect to the Injustice and Inhumanity of the Traffic in Slaves, and promises to take into Consideration, with the Deliberation which the State of his Possessions in America demands, the Means of acting in Conformity with these Sentiments; and engages, moreover, to prohibit his Subjects from carrying on the Slave Trade, for the Purpose of supplying any Islands or Possessions, excepting those appertaining to Spain; and to prevent, by effectual Measures and Regulations, the Protection of the Spanish Flag being given to Foreigners who may engage in this Traffic, whether Subjects of His Britannic Majesty, or any other State or Power."

• And His Catholic Majesty, conformably to the Spirit of this Article, and to the Principles of Humanity with which he is animated, having never lost sight of an Object so interesting to him, and being desirous of hastening the Moment of its Attainment, has resolved to co-operate with His Britannic Majesty in the Cause of Humanity, by adopting, in concert with His said Majesty, efficacious Means for bringing about the Abolition of the Slave Trade, for effectually suppressing illicit Traffic in Slaves on the Part of their respective Subjects, and for preventing Spanish Ships trading in Slaves conformably to Law and to Treaty from being molested or subjected to Losses from British Cruisers: the Two High Contracting Parties have accordingly named as their Plenipotentiaries, viz.—

• His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Sir Henry Wellesley, a Member of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Catholic Majesty; and His Majesty the King of Spain and the Indies, Don Josef Gálvez de León y Pizarro, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal and distinguished Spanish Order of Charles Third, of that of Saint Ferdinand and of Merit, of that of Saint Alexander Nevsky and of St Anne, of Russia, and of that of the Red Eagle, of Prussia, Councillor of State, First Secretary of State and of the General Dispatch, who having exchanged their respective full Powers, found to be in good and due Form, have agreed upon the following Articles:

• Article the First.—His Catholic Majesty engages, that the Slave Trade shall be abolished throughout the entire Dominions of Spain on the Thirtieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and that from and after that Period it shall not be lawful for any of the Subjects of the Crown of Spain to purchase Slaves or to carry on the Slave Trade on any Part of the Coast of Africa, upon any Pretext or in any Manner whatever; provided, however, that a Term of Five Months from the said Date of the Thirtieth of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels which shall have cleared out lawfully previously to the said Thirtieth of May.

• Article the Second.—It is hereby agreed, that from and after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, it shall not be lawful for any of the Subjects of the Crown of Spain to purchase Slaves, or to carry on the Slave Trade on any Part of the Coast of Africa to the North of the Equator, upon any Pretext or in any Manner whatever; provided, however, that a Term of Six Months, from the Date of the Exchange of the Ratifications of this Treaty, shall be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels which shall have cleared out from Spanish Ports for the said Coast previously to the Exchange of the said Ratifications.

• Article the Third.—His Britannic Majesty engages to pay, in London, on the Twentieth of February One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, the Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, to such Person as His Catholic Majesty shall appoint to receive the same.

• Article the Fourth.—The said Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds Sterling is to be considered as a full Compensation for all Losses sustained by the Subjects of His Catholic Majesty engaged in this Traffic, on account of Vessels captured previously to the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, as also for the Losses which are a necessary Consequence of the Abolition of the said Traffic.

• Article the Fifth.—One of the Objects of this Treaty, on the Part of the Two Governments, being mutually to prevent their respective Subjects from carrying on an illicit Slave Trade;

• The Two High Contracting Parties declare, that they consider as illicit any Traffic in Slaves carried on under the following Circumstances:

• First. Either by British Ships, and under the British Flag, or for the Account of British Subjects, by any Vessel or under any Flag whatsoever.

• Second. By Spanish Ships, upon any Part of the Coast of Africa North of the Equator, after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty; provided, however, that Six Months shall be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels, conformably to the Tenor of the Second Article of this Treaty.

• Third. Either by Spanish Ships, and under the Spanish Flag, or for the Account of Spanish Subjects by any Vessel or under any Flag whatsoever, after the Thirtieth of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty, when the Traffic in Slaves, on the Part of Seneg, is to cease entirely: Provided always, that Five Months shall be allowed for the Completion of Voyages commenced in due Time, conformably to the First Article of the Treaty.

and

Fourth. Under the British or Spanish Flag for the Account of the Subjects of any other Government.

Fifth. By Spanish Vessels bound for any Port not in the Dominions of His Catholic Majesty.

Article the Sixth.—His Catholic Majesty will adopt, in Conformity to the Spirit of this Treaty, the Measures which are best calculated to give full and complete Effect to the insidious Objects which the High Contracting Parties have in view.

Article the Seventh.—Every Spanish Vessel which shall be destined for the Slave Trade, in any Part of the Coast of Africa where this Traffic still continues to be lawful, must be provided with a Royal Passport, conformable to the Model annexed to the present Treaty, and which Model forms an integral Part of the same. This Passport must be written in the Spanish Language, with an authentic Translation in English annexed thereto; and it must be signed by His Catholic Majesty, and countersigned by the Minister of Marine, and also by the principal Naval Authority of the District Station, or Port from whence the Vessel clears out, whether in Spain, or in the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty.

Article the Eighth.—It is to be understood that this Passport, for rendering lawful the Voyages of Slave Ships, is required only for the Coastwise of the Traffic to the South of the Line; those Passports which are now issued, signed by the First Secretary of State of His Catholic Majesty, and in the Form prescribed by the Order of the Sixteenth of December One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, remaining in full Force for all Vessels which may have cleared out for the Coast of Africa, as well to the North as to the South of the Line, previously to the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty.

Article the Ninth.—The Two High Contracting Parties, for the more complete Attainment of the Object of preventing all illicit Traffic in Slaves on the Part of their respective Subjects, mutually consent, that the Ships of War of their Royal Navies which shall be provided with special Instructions for this Purpose, as hereinafter mentioned, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may be suspected, upon reasonable Grounds, of having Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Traffic, and in the Event only of their finding Slaves on board may detain and bring away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial before the Tribunals established for this Purpose, as shall hereinafter be specified.

Provided always, that the Commanders of the Ships of War of the Two Royal Navies who shall be employed on this Service shall adhere strictly to the exact Tenor of the Instructions which they shall receive for this Purpose.

As this Article is entirely reciprocal, the Two High Contracting Parties engage mutually to make good any Losses which their respective Subjects may incur unjustly, by the arbitrary and illegal Detention of their Vessels.

It being understood that this Indemnity shall invariably be borne by the Government whose Cruisers shall have been guilty of the arbitrary Detention; provided always, that the Visit and Detention of Slave Ships specified in this Article shall only be effected by those British or Spanish Vessels which may form Part of the Two Royal Navies, and by those only of such Vessels which are provided with the special Instructions annexed to the present Treaty.

Article the Tenth.—No British or Spanish Cruiser shall detain any Slave Ship not having Slaves actually on board, and in order to render lawful the Detention of any Ship, whether British or Spanish, the Slaves found on board of such Vessel must have been brought aboard for the express Purpose of the Traffic, and those on board of Spanish Ships must have been taken from that Part of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade is prohibited, conformably to the Tenor of the present Treaty.

Article the Eleventh.—All Ships of War of the Two Nations, which shall hereafter be destined to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished by their own Government with a Copy of the Instructions annexed to the present Treaty, and which shall be considered as an integral Part thereof.

These Instructions shall be written in Spanish and English, and signed, for the Vessels of each of the Two Powers, by the Minister of their respective Marine.

The Two High Contracting Parties reserve the Faculty of altering the said Instructions, in Whole or in Part, according to Circumstances; it being however well understood, that the said Alterations cannot take place but by common Agreement, and by the Consent of the Two High Contracting Parties.

Article the Twelfth.—In order to bring to Adjudication, with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the Vessels which may be detained for having been engaged in an illicit Traffic of Slaves, there shall be established, within the Space of a Year at farthest upon the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, Two Mixed Commissions, formed of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two Nations, named for this Purpose by their respective Sovereigns.

These Commissions shall reside, one in a Possession belonging to His Britannic Majesty, the other within the Territories of His Catholic Majesty, and the Two Governments, at the Period of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, shall declare, each for its own Dominion, in what Place the Commissions shall respectively reside, each of the Two High Contracting Parties reserving to itself the Right of changing at its Pleasure the Place of Residence of the Commission held within it.

own Dominions; provided, however, that one of the Two Commissions shall always be held upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in one of the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty.

These Commissions shall judge the Causes submitted to them without Appeal, and according to the Regulations and Instructions annexed to the present Treaty, of which they shall be considered as an integral Part.

Article the Thirteenth.—The Acts or Instruments annexed to this Treaty, and which form an integral Part thereof, are as follows:

- No. 1. Form of Passport for the Spanish Merchant Ships destined for the lawful Traffic in Slaves.
- No. 2. Instructions for the Ships of War of both Nations destined to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves.
- No. 3. Regulation for the Mixed Commissions which are to hold their Sittings on the Coast of Africa, and in one of the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty.

Article the Fourteenth.—The present Treaty, consisting of Fourteen Articles, shall be ratified, and the Ratifications exchanged at Madrid, within the Space of Two Months from this Date, or so soon as possible.

In Witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have thereto affixed the Seal of their Arms.

Instructions for British and Spanish Ships of War

• Article I.—Every British or Spanish Ship of War shall, in Conformity with Article XIII of the Treaty of this Date, have a Right to Visit the Merchant Ships of either of the Two Powers actually engaged or suspected to be engaged in the Slave Trade; and should any Slaves be found on board, according to the Tenor of the XIII Article of the aforesaid Treaty; and as to what regards the Spanish Vessels, should there be ground to suspect that the said Slaves have been embarked on a Part of the Coast of Africa where the Traffic is no longer permitted, conformably to the Articles I and II of the Treaty of this Date; in those Cases alone the Commander of the said Ship of War may detain them; and having detained them, he is to bring them as soon as possible, for Judgment, before that of the Two Mixed Commissions appointed by the XIII Article of the Treaty of this Date, which shall be the nearest, or which the Commander of the capturing Ship shall, upon his own Responsibility, think he can receive reach from the Spot where the Slave Ship shall have been detained.

• Ships on board of which no Slaves shall be found, intended for Purposes of Traffic, shall not be detained on any Account or Pretence whatever.

• Negro Servants or Sailors that may be found on board the said Vessels cannot in any Case be deemed a sufficient Cause of Detention.

• Article II.—No Spanish Merchantman or Slave Ship shall on any Pretence whatever be detained, which shall be found any where near the Land, or on the High Seas, South of the Equator, during the Period for which the Traffic is to remain lawful, according to the stipulations subsisting between the High Contracting Parties, unless after a Chase that shall have commenced North of the Equator.

• Article III.—Spanish Vessels, furnished with a regular Passport, having Slaves on board, stopped at those Parts of the Coast of Africa where the Trade is permitted to Spanish Subjects, and which shall afterwards be found North of the Equator, shall not be detained by the Ships of War of the Two Nations, though furnished with the present Instructions, provided the same can account for their Course, either in Conformity with the Practice of the Spanish Navigation, by steering some Degree to the Northward in Search of fair Winds, or for other legitimate Causes, such as the Danger of the Sea, duly proved: Provided always, that with regard to all Slave Ships detained to the North of the Equator, after the Expiration of the Term allowed, the Proof of the Loyalty of the Voyage is to be furnished by the Vessel so detained. On the other Hand, with respect to Slave Ships detained to the South of the Equator, in Conformity with the stipulations of the preceding Article, the Proof of the Illegality of the Voyage is to be exhibited by the Captain.

• It is in the Manner stipulated, that the Number of Slaves found on board a Slave Ship by the Crew, even should the Number not agree with that contained in the Passports, shall not be sufficient Reason to justify the Detention of the Ship; but the Captain and Proprietor shall be denounced to the Spanish Tribunals, in order to their being punished according to the Laws of the Country.

• Article IV.—Every Spanish Vessel intended to be employed in the legal Traffic in Slaves, in Conformity with the Principles laid down in the Treaty of this Date, shall be commanded by a native Spaniard; and Two Thirds, at least, of the Crew shall likewise be Spaniards: Provided always, that the Spanish or Foreign Construction shall in no way affect its Necessity, and that the Negro Sailors shall always be reckoned as Spaniards, provided they belong, as Slaves, to Subjects of the Crown of Spain, or that they have been enfranchised in the Dominions of His Catholic Majesty.

• Article V.—Whenever a Ship of War shall meet a Merchantman liable to be searched, it shall be done in the most mild Manner, and with every Attention which is due between allied and friendly Nations; and in no case shall the Search be made by an Officer holding a Rank inferior to that of Lieutenant in the Navy of Great Britain, or of Ensign of a Ship of the Line in the Spanish Navy.

• Article VI.—The Ships of War which may detain any Slave Ship, in pursuance of the Principles laid down in the present Instructions, shall leave on board all the Cargo of Negroes attached, as well as the Captain, and a Part, at least, of the Crew of the above mentioned Slave Ship: the Captain shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall exhibit the State in which he found the detained Ship, and the Changes which may have taken place in it; he shall deliver to the Captain of the Slave Ship a signed Certificate of the Papers seized on board of the said Vessel, as well as of the Number of Slaves found on board at the Moment of Detention.

• The Negroes shall not be disembarked till after the Vessels which contain them shall be arrived at the Place where the Loyalty of the Capture is to be tried by One of the Two Mixed Commissions, in order that, in event of their not being adjudged legal Prize, the Loss of the Proprietors may be more easily

• easily repaired. If, however, urgent Motives, deduced from the Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes, or other Causes, required that they should be disembarked entirely, or in part, before the Vessel could arrive at the Place of Residence of One of the said Commissions, the Commander of the capturing Ship may take on himself the Responsibility of such Disembarkation, provided that the Necessity be stated in 4 Certificates in proper Form.

• Article VII. — No Conveyance of Slaves from one Part to the Spanish Possessions to another shall take place, except in Ships provided with Passports from the Government on the Spot, ad hoc.

• Regulations for the Mixed Commissions, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa, and in a Colonial Possession of His Catholic Majesty.

• Article I. — The Mixed Commissions to be established by the Treaty of this Date, upon the Coast of Africa and in a Colonial Possession of His Catholic Majesty, are appointed to decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Slave Vessels as the Cruisers of both Nations shall detain, in pursuance of this same Treaty, for carrying on an illicit Commerce in Slaves.

• The above mentioned Commissions shall judge, without Appeal, according to the Letter and Spirit of the Treaty of this Date.

• The Commissions shall give Sentence as summarily as possible, and they are required to decide (as far as they shall find it practicable) within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from that on which every detained Vessel shall have been brought into the Port where they shall reside: First, upon the Legality of the Capture; Second, in the Case in which the captured Vessel shall have been liberated, as to the Indemnifications which she is to receive.

• And it is hereby provided, that in all Cases the final Sentence shall not be delayed on account of the Absence of Witnesses, or for Want of other Proofs, beyond the Period of Two Months, except upon the Application of any of the Parties interested, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to discharge themselves with the Expence and Risks of the Delay, the Commissioners may at their Discretion grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months.

• Article II. — Each of the above mentioned Mixed Commissions, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa and in a Colonial Possession of His Catholic Majesty, shall be composed in the following Manner:

• The Two High Contracting Parties shall each of them name a Commissary Judge and a Commissioner of Arbitration, who shall be authorized to hear and to decide, without Appeal, all Cases of Capture of Slave Vessels which, in pursuance of the Stipulations of the Treaty of this Date, may be laid before them. All the essential Parts of the Proceedings carried on before these Mixed Commissions shall be written down in the legal Language of the Country to which the Commission may reside.

• The Commissary Judges and the Commissioners of Arbitration shall make Oath, in Presence of the principal Magistrate of the Place in which the Commission may reside, to judge fairly and faithfully, to have no Preference either for the Claimants or the Captors, and to act in all their Decisions in pursuance of the Stipulations of the Treaty of this Date.

• There shall be attached to each Commission a Secretary or Registrar appointed by the Sovereigns of the Country in which the Commission may reside, who shall register all his Acts, and who, previous to his taking charge of his Post, shall make Oath in Presence of at least One of the Commissary Judges, to conduct himself with Respect to their Authority, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to his Charge.

• Article III. — The Form of the Process shall be as follows:

• The Commissary Judges of the Two Nations shall, in the first Place, proceed to the Examination of the Papers of the Vessel, and to receive the Depositions on Oath of the Captain, and of Two or Three at least of the principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the Declaration on Oath of the Captor, should it appear necessary, in order to be able to judge and to pronounce if the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the Treaty of this Date, and in order that, according to the Judgment, it may be condemned or liberated. And in the Event of the Two Commissary Judges not agreeing on the Sentence they ought to pronounce, whether as to the Legality of the Detention, or the Indemnification to be allowed, or on any other Question which might result from the Stipulations of the Treaty of this Date, — they shall draw by Lot the Name of One of the Two Commissioners of Arbitration, who, after having considered the Documents of the Process, shall consult with the above mentioned Commissary Judges on the Case in question, and the final Sentence shall be pronounced conformably to the Opinion of the Majority of the above mentioned Commissary Judges, and of the above mentioned Commissioner of Arbitration.

• Article IV. — As often as the Cargo of Slaves found on board of a Spanish Slave Ship shall have been embarked on any Point whatever of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade continues to be lawful, such Slave Ship shall not be detained on pretence that the above mentioned Slaves have been brought originally by Land from any other Part whatever of the Continent.

• Article V. — In the authorized Declaration which the Captor shall make before the Commission, as well as in the Certificate of the Papers seized, which shall be delivered to the Captain of the captured Vessel at the Time of the Detention, the above mentioned Captor shall be bound to declare his Name, the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detainees shall have taken place, and the Number of Slaves found living on board of the Slave Ship at the Time of the Detention.

Article VI.—As soon as Sentence shall have been passed, the detained Vessel, if liberated, and what remains of the Cargo, shall be restored to the Proprietors, who may before the same Commission claim a Valuation of the Damages which they may have a Right to demand; the Captain himself, and in his Default his Government, shall remain responsible for the above mentioned Damages.

The Two High Contracting Parties bind themselves to defray, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the Sentence, the Indemnifications which may be granted by the above named Commission, it being understood that these Indemnifications shall be at the Expence of the Power of which the Captain shall be a Subject.

Article VII.—In case of the Condemnation of a Vessel for an unlawful Voyage, she shall be declared lawful Prize, as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who may be on board as Objects of Commerce; and the said Vessel, as well as her Cargo, shall be sold by public Sale for the Profit of the Two Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the Mixed Commission a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government on whose Territory the Commission which shall have so judged them shall be established, to be employed as Servants or Free Labourers. Each of the Two Governments binds itself to guarantee the Liberty of these Individuals as shall be respectively assigned to it.

Article VIII.—Every Claim for Compensation of Losses occasioned to Ships respected of carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, not condemned as lawful Prize by the Mixed Commission, shall also be heard and judged by the above named Commissions, in the Form provided by the Third Article of the present Regulation; and in all Cases wherein Restitution shall be so decreed, the Commission shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, or his or their lawful Attorney or Attorneys, for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification, for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention; that is to say, In case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified.—First, for the Ship, her Tackle, Apparel and Stores; Secondly, for all Freight due and payable; Thirdly, for the Value of the Cargo of Merchandise, if any; Fourthly, for the Slaves on board at the Time of Detention, according to the computed Value of such Slaves at the Place of Destination, deducting therefrom the usual fair average Mortality for the unexpired Period of the regular Voyage; deducting also for all Charges and Expenses payable upon the Sale of such Cargoes, including Commission of Sale; and, Fifthly, for all other regular Charges in such Cases of total Loss: And in all other Cases not of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified.—First, from all special Damages and Expenses occasioned to the Ship by the Detention, and for Loss of Freight when due or payable; Secondly, a Demurrage, when due, according to the Schedule annexed to the present Article; Thirdly, a daily Allowance for the Subsistence of Sen or Age, for so many Days as it shall appear to the Commission that the Voyage has been or may be delayed by reason of such Detention; as likewise, Fourthly, for any Detention of Cargo or Slaves; Fifthly, for any Diminution in the Value of the Cargo of Slaves, proceeding from an increased Mortality beyond the average Amount of the Voyage, or from Sicknes occasioned by Detention; this Value to be ascertained by their computed Price at the Place of Destination, as in the above Case of total Loss; Sixthly, an Allowance of Five per Cent. on the Amount of the Capital employed in the Purchase and Management of Cargo, for the Period of Delay occasioned by the Detention; and, Seventhly, for all Premiums of Insurance on additional Risks.

The Claimant or Claimants shall likewise be entitled to Interest, at the Rate of Five per Cent. per Annum on the Sum awarded, until paid by Government to which the capturing Ship belongs; the whole Amount of such Indemnification being calculated in the Money of the Country to which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at the Exchange current at the Time of Award, excepting the Sum for the Subsistence of Slaves, which shall be Paid, as above stipulated.

The Two High Contracting Parties wishing to avoid, as much as possible, every Species of Fraud in the Execution of the Treaty of this Date, have agreed, that if it should be proved, in a Manner evident to the Conviction of the Commissary Judges of the Two Nations, and without having Recourse to the Decisions of a Commissioner of Arbitration, that the Captain has been led into Error by a voluntary and reprehensible Fraud on the Part of the Captain of the detained Ship; in that Case only, the detained Ship shall not have the Right of receiving, during the Days of her Detention, the Demurrage stipulated by the present Article.

Article IX.—When the Proprietor of a Ship suspected of carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, retained in consequence of a Sentence of One of the Mixed Commissions for or in the Case, as above mentioned, of total Loss, shall claim Indemnification for the Loss of Slaves which he may have suffered, he shall in no Case be entitled to claim for more than the Number of Slaves which his Vessel by the Spanish Law was authorized to carry, which Number shall always be stated in his Passports.

Article X.—Neither the Judges, nor the Arbitrators, nor the Secretaries of the Mixed Commissions, shall be permitted to demand or receive fees any of the Parties concerned in the Sentences which they shall pronounce, any Emoluments, under any Pretext whatsoever, for the Performance of the Duties which are imposed upon them by the present Regulation.

Article XI.—When the Parties interested shall imagine they have Cause to complain of any evident Injustice on the Part of the Mixed Commissions, they may represent it to their respective Governments, who reserve to themselves the Right of mutual Correspondence, for the Purpose of removing, when they think fit, the Individuals who may compose these Commissions.

Article XII.—In case of a Vessel being improperly detained, under Pretence of the Seizure of the Treaty of this Date, and the Captor not being enabled to justify himself, either by the Terms of the said Treaty or of the Instructions annexed to it, the Government to which the detained Vessel may belong shall be entitled to demand Reparation; and in such Case the Government to which the Captor may belong binds himself to cause Inquiry to be made into the Complaint, and to inflict upon the Captor, if he be found to have deserved it, a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed.

Article XIII.—The Two High Contracting Parties have agreed, that in the Event of the Death of One or more of the Commissary Judges or the Commissioners of Arbitration composing the above mentioned Mixed Commissions, their Places shall be supplied, as follows, in the following Manner:

On the Part of the British Government, the Vacancies shall be filled successively in the Commission which shall sit within the Possessions of His Britannic Majesty, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in that Colony, by the principal Magistrate of the same, and by the Secretary; and in that which shall sit within the Possessions of His Catholic Majesty, it is agreed, that, in case of the Death of the British Judge or Arbitrator there, the remaining Individuals of the said Commission shall proceed equally to the Judgment of such Slave Ships as may be brought before them, and to the Execution of their Sentence. In this Case also, however, the Parties interested shall have the Right of appealing from the Sentence, if they think fit, to the Commission resident upon the Coast of Africa; and the Government to which the Captor shall belong shall be bound fully to make good the Compensation which shall be due to them in case the Appeal be decided in favour of the Claimants: but the Vessel and Cargo shall remain during such Appeal, in the Place of Residence of the First Commission before which they shall have been carried.

On the Part of Spain, the Vacancies shall be supplied, in the Possession of His Catholic Majesty, by such Persons of Trust as the principal Authority of the Country shall appoint; and upon the Coast of Africa, in case of the Death of any Spanish Judge or Arbitrator, the Commission shall proceed to Judgment in the same Manner as above specified for the Commission resident in the Possession of His Catholic Majesty, in the Coast of the British Judge or Arbitrator; an Appeal being, in the Case aforesaid, allowed to the Commission resident in the Possession of His Catholic Majesty; and in general, all the Provisions of the former Case being to be applied to the present.

The High Contracting Parties have agreed to supply, as soon as possible, the Vacancies that may arise in the above mentioned Commissions, from Death or any other Cause; and in case that the Vacancy of any of the Spanish Commissions in the British Possessions, or of the British Commissions in the Spanish Possessions, be not supplied at the End of the Term of Seven Months for America, and of Twelve for Africa, the Vessels which shall be brought to the said Possessions respectively shall cease to have the Right of Appeal above stipulated.

TREATY between His Britannic Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, for preventing their Subjects from engaging in any Traffic in Slaves. Signed at The Hague, May Fourth One thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

Treaty with Netherlands, dated May 4, 1818.

In the Name of the Most Holy Trinity:—His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, animated with a mutual Desire to adopt the most effectual Measures for putting a Stop to the carrying on of the Slave Trade by their respective Subjects, and for preventing their respective Flags from being made use of as a Protection to this odious Traffic by the People of other Countries who may engage therein; their said Majesties have accordingly resolved to proceed to the Arrangement of a Convention for the Attainment of these Objects, and have therefore named as Plenipotentiaries, ad hoc

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Liverpool, Viscount Dundas, Baron Kelso, Lord of Gardsilly in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, One of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in Great Britain and also in Ireland, Member of the Committee of the First for the Affairs of Commerce and Colonies, Colonel of the Regiment of Militia of the County of Galway, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of His said Majesty to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxembourg; and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Anne William Charles Baron de Nagels of Angers, Member of the Body of Nobles of the Province of Guelders, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Belgic Lion and of that of Charles the Third, Chamberlain and Minister of State holding the Department of Foreign Affairs; and Cornelius Peter Van Meenen, Commander of the Order of the Belgic Lion, and Minister of State holding the Department of Justice: who, having exchanged their full Powers, found in good and due Form, have agreed on the following Articles:

Article I.—The Laws of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland rendering it already highly penal for the Subjects of His Britannic Majesty to carry on, or to be in any way engaged in Trade in Slaves, His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, referring to the Eighth Article of the Convention entered into with His Britannic Majesty on the Thirtieth August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, engages in pursuance thereof, and within Eight Months from the Ratification of these Presents, or sooner if possible, to prohibit all his Subjects, in the most effectual Manner, and especially by penal Law the most formal, to take any Part whatever in the Trade of Slaves; and in the Event of the Measures already taken by the British Government, and to be taken by that of the Netherlands, being found inefficient or insufficient, the High Contracting Parties mutually engage to adopt such further Measures, whether by legal Provision or otherwise, as may from time to time appear to be best calculated in the most effectual Manner to prevent all their respective Subjects from taking any Share whatever in the said Trade.

Article II.—The Two High Contracting Parties, for the more complete Attainment of the Object of preventing all Trade in Slaves on the Part of their respective Subjects, mutually consent that the Ships of their Royal Navies, which shall be provided with special Instructions for this Purpose, as hereinafter mentioned, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may be suspected upon reasonable Grounds of having Slaves on board for an illicit Trade; and in the Event only of their finding such Slaves on board, may detain and bring away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial before the Tribunals established for this Purpose, as shall hereinafter be specified.

Article III.—In the Intention of explaining the Mode of Execution of the preceding Article, it is agreed, 1st That such reciprocal Rights of Visit and Detention shall not be exercised within the Mediterranean Sea, or within the Seas or Europe lying without the Straits of Gibraltar, and which lie to the Northward of the Thirty-sixth Parallel of North Latitude, and also within and to the Eastward of the Meridian of Longitude Twenty Degrees West of Greenwich.

2^d That the Names of the several Vessels furnished with such Instructions, the Force of each, and the Names of their several Commanders, shall be from time to time, immediately upon their Issue, communicated by the Power issuing the same to the other High Contracting Party.

3^d That the Number of Ships of each of the Royal Navies authorized to make such Visits as aforesaid, shall not exceed the Number of Twelve belonging to either of the High Contracting Parties, without the special Consent of the other High Contracting Party being first had and obtained.

4th That if at any Time it should be deemed expedient that any Ship of the Royal Navy of either of the Two High Contracting Parties, authorized to make such Visits as aforesaid, should proceed to visit any Merchant Ship or Ships under the Flag, and proceeding under the Cover of any Vessel or Vessels of the Royal Navy of the other High Contracting Party, that the Commanding Officer of the Ship, duly authorized and instructed to make such Visits, shall proceed to effect the same in Communication with the commanding Officer of the Cover, who is hereby agreed shall give every Facility to such Visit, and to the eventual Detainer of the Merchant Ship or Ships so visited, and in all Things assist to the utmost of his Power in the due Execution of the present Convention, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof.

5th It is further mutually agreed, that the Commanders of the Ships of the Two Royal Navies, who shall be employed on this Service, shall adhere strictly to the exact Tenor of the Instructions which they shall receive for this Purpose.

Article IV.—As the Two preceding Articles are entirely reciprocal, the Two High Contracting Parties mutually engage mutually to make good any Losses which their respective Subjects may incur unjustly, by the arbitrary and illegal Detention of their Vessels: it being understood that this Indemnity shall invariably be borne by the Government whose Cruiser shall have been guilty of the arbitrary Detention; and that the Visit and Detention of Ships specified in this Article, shall only be effected by those British or Netherlands Vessels which may form Part of the Two Royal Navies, and by those only of such Vessels which are provided with the special Instructions annexed to the present Treaty, in pursuance of the Provisions thereof.

Article V.—No British or Netherlands Cruiser shall detain any Ship whatsoever not having Slaves actually on board; and in order to render lawful the Detention of any Ship, whether British or Antislave, the Slaves found on board such Vessels must have been brought there for the express Purpose of the Trade.

Article VI.—All Ships of the Royal Navies of the Two Nations, which shall hereafter be destined to prevent the Trade in Slaves, shall be furnished by their respective Governments with a Copy of the Instructions annexed to the present Treaty, and shall be considered as an integral Part thereof.

These Instructions shall be written in the Dutch and English Languages, and signed for the Vessels of each of the Two Powers by the Minister of their respective Navies.

The Two High Contracting Parties reserve the Faculty of altering the said Instructions, in Whole or in Part, according to Circumstances; it being however well understood, that the said Alterations cannot take place but by mutual Agreement, and by the Consent of the Two High Contracting Parties.

Article VII.—In order to bring to Adjudication, with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the Vessels which may be detained for having been engaged in a Trade of Slaves, according to the Tenor of the Fifth Article of this Treaty, there shall be established, within the Space of a Year at furthest from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, Two Mixed Courts of Justice, formed of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two Nations, named for this Purpose by their respective Sovereigns.

These Courts shall reside, one in a Possession belonging to His Britannic Majesty, the other within the Territories of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands; and the Two Governments, at the Period of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, shall declare, each for its own Dominions,

² The Courts shall judge the Causes submitted to them according to the Terms of the present Treaty, without Appeal, and according to the Regulations and Instructions annexed to the present Treaty, of which they shall be considered as an integral Part.

³ Article VIII.—In case the Commanding Officer of any of the Ships of the Royal Navies of Great Britain and of the Netherlands, commissioned under the Second Article of this Treaty, shall desire in any respect from the Dispositions of the said Treaty, and shall not be enabled to justify himself, either by the Terms of the said Treaty, or of the Instructions annexed to it, the Government which shall conceive itself to be wronged by such Conduct shall be entitled to demand Reparation; and in such Case the Government to which the Captain may belong shall be bound to cause Enquiry to be made into the Subject of the Complaint, and to inflict upon the Captain, if he be found to have deserved it, a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed.

⁴ Article IX.—The Acts or Instruments annexed to the Treaty, and which form an integral Part thereof, are as follow :

¹ A. Instructions for the Ships of the Royal Navies of both Nations destined to prevent the Traffic in Slaves.

² B. Regulation for the Mixed Courts of Justice, which are to hold their Sittings on the Coast of Africa, and in one of the Colonial Possessions of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands.

³ Article X.—The present Treaty, consisting of Ten Articles, shall be ratified, and the Ratifications exchanged within the Space of One Month from this Date, or sooner if possible.

⁴ In Witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and thereto affixed the Seal of their Arms.

Instructions for British and Netherlands Ships.

² Article I.—Every Ship of the Royal British or Netherlands Navy, which, furnished with these Instructions, shall, in Conformity with the Second Article of the Treaty of this Date, have a Right to visit the Merchant Ships of either of the Two Powers actually engaged or suspected to be engaged in the Slave Trade, except in the Seas excepted by the Third Article of the said Treaty, presented to such Vessels, and should any Slaves be found on board, brought there for the express Purpose of the Traffic, the Commander of the said Ship of the Royal Navy may detain them; and having detained them, he is to bring them as soon as possible, for Judgement, before that of the Two Mixed Courts of Justice appointed by the Seventh Article of the Treaty of this Date, which shall be the nearest, or which the Commander of the capturing Ship shall, upon his own Responsibility, think he can most reach from the Spot where the Ship shall have been detained.

³ Ships, on board of which no Slaves shall be found intended for Purpose of Traffic, shall not be detained on any Account or Pretence whatever.

⁴ Negro Servants or Sailors that may be found on board the said Vessels cannot in any Case be deemed a sufficient Cause for Detention.

⁶ Article III.—The Ships of the Royal Navies so commissioned, which may detain any Merchant Ship, in pursuance of the Terms of the present Instructions, shall leave on board all the Cargo, as well as the Master, and a Part at least of the Crew of the above mentioned Ship; the Captain shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall exhibit the State in which he found the detained Ship, and the Changes which may have taken place in it. He shall deliver to the Master of the detained Ship a signed Certificate of the Papers found on board the said Vessel, as well as of the Number of Slaves found on board at the Moment of Detention.

⁷ The Negroes shall not be disembarked till after the Vessel which contains them shall be arrived at the Place where the Legality of the Capture is to be tried by One of the Two Mixed Courts, in order that in the Event of their not being adjudged legal Prizes, the Loss of the Proprietors may be more easily repaired. It, however, urgent Motives, deduced from the Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes or other Causes, required that they should be disembarked, entirely or in Part,

Regulations for Mixed Courts, as to the Nations' Trade.

- Regulations for the Mixed Courts of Justice, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa, and in a Colonial Possession of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands.

• Article I.—The Mixed Courts of Justice to be established by the Treaty of this Date, upon the Coast of Africa and in a Colonial Possession of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, are appointed to decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Vessels as the Cruisers of both Nations shall detain in pursuance of this same Treaty.

• The above mentioned Courts shall judge definitively and without Appeal, according to the present Treaty.

• The Proceeding shall take place as summarily as possible; the Courts are required to decide, as far as they shall find it practicable, within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from that on which every detained Vessel shall have been brought into the Port where they shall reside:—First, upon the Legality of the Capture;—Secondly, in the Cases in which the captured Vessel shall have been liberated, as to the Indemnification which the said Vessel is to receive.

• And it is hereby provided, that in all Cases the final Sentence shall not be delayed, on account of the Absence of Witnesses or for Want of other Proof, beyond the Period of Two Months, except upon the Application of any of the Parties concerned, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to charge themselves with the Expence and Risks of the Delay, the Courts may at their Discretion grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months.

• Article II.—Each of the above mentioned Mixed Courts, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa, and in a Colonial Possession of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, shall be composed in the following Manner:

• The Two High Contracting Parties shall each of them name a Judge and an Arbitrator, who shall be authorized to hear and to decide, without Appeal, all Cases of Capture of Vessels which, in pursuance of the Stipulations of the Treaty of this Date, shall be brought before them. All the essential Parts of the Proceedings carried on before these Mixed Courts shall be written down in the legal Language of the Country in which the Court may reside.

• The Judges and the Arbitrators shall make Oath before the principal Magistrate of the Place in which the Courts may reside, to judge fairly and faithfully, to have no Preference either for the Clergy or the Captors, and to act in all their Decisions in pursuance of the Stipulations of the Treaty of this Date.

• There shall be attached to each Court a Secretary or Registrar, appointed by the Sovereign of the Country in which the Court may reside, who shall register all its Acts, and who, previous to his taking charge of his Post, shall make Oath before the Court to conduct himself with respect for their Authority, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to his Charge.

• Article III.—The Form of the Process shall be as follows:

• The Judges of the Two Nations shall, in the first Place, proceed to the Examination of the Papers of the Vessels, and to receive the Depositions of the Captain, and of Two or Three at least of the principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the Declaration on Oath of the Captor, should it appear necessary, in order to be able to judge and to pronounce whether the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the present Treaty, and in order that, according to this Judgment, it may be condemned or liberated; and in the Event of the Two Judges not agreeing in the Sentence they ought to pronounce, whether as to the Legality of the Detention, or the Indemnification to be allowed, or any other Question which might result from the Stipulations of the present Treaty, they shall draw by Lot the Name of One of the Two Arbitrators, who, having considered the Documents of the Process, shall consult with the above mentioned Judges on the Case in Question, and the final Sentence shall be pronounced conformably to the Opinion of the Majority of the above mentioned Judges, and of the above mentioned Arbitrator.

• Article IV.—In the authenticated Declaration, which the Captor shall make before the Court, as well as in the Certificate of the Papers seized, which shall be delivered to the Captain of the captured Vessel at the Time of the Detention, the above mentioned Captor shall be bound to declare his Name, the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall have taken place, and the Number of Slaves found on board of the Ship at the Time of the Detention.

• Article V.—As soon as Sentence shall have been pronounced, the detained Vessel, if liberated, and the Cargo, in the State in which it shall then be found, shall be restored to the Master or the Person who represents him, who may, before the same Court, claim a Valuation of the Damages which they may have a Right to demand; the Captor himself, and in his Default, his Government, shall remain responsible for the above mentioned Damages.

• The Two High Contracting Parties bind themselves to pay, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the Sentence, the Costs and Damages which may be granted by the above named Court, it being understood that these Costs and Damages shall be at the Expence of the Power of which the Captor shall be a Subject.

• Article VI.—In case of the Condemnation of a Vessel, she shall be declared lawful Prize as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who may be on board as Objects of Commerce; and the said Vessel, as well as her Cargo, shall be sold by Public Sale, for the Profit of the Two Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the Mixed Court a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government on whose Territory the Court which shall have so judged them shall be established, to be employed as Servants or free Labourers.

Each of the Two Governments binds itself to guarantee the Liberty of such Parties of these Individuals as shall be respectively assigned to it.

Article VII.—The Mixed Courts shall also take Cognisance and decide according to the Third Article of this Regulation, on all Claims for Compensation, on account of Losses occasioned to Vessels detained under Suspicion of having been engaged in the Slave Trade, but which shall not have been condemned as legal Prizes by the said Courts; and in all Cases wherein Restitution shall be deemed, the Court shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, his or their lawful Attorney or Attorneys, for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention; that is to say, First, in case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified,

- A. For the Ship, her Tackle, Apparel and Stays.
 - B. For all Freight due and payable.
 - C. For the Value of the Cargo of Merchandise, if any; deducting for all Charges and Expenses payable upon the Sale of such Cargo, including Commissions of Sale.
 - D. For all other regular Charges, in such Cases of total Loss; and,
- Secondly, in all other Cases not of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified,
- A. For all special Damages and Expenses occasioned to the Ship by the Detention, and for Loss of Freight, when due or payable.
 - B. A Demurrage when due, according to the Schedule annexed to the present Article.
 - C. For any Detention of the Cargo.
 - D. An Allowance of Five per Cent. on the Amount of the Capital employed in the Purchase of Cargo, for the Period of Delay occasioned by the Detention; and,
 - E. For all Premiums of Insurance on additional Risks.

The Claimant or Claimants shall in all Cases be entitled to Interest at the rate of Five per Cent. per Annum on the Sum awarded, until paid by the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs; the whole Amount of such Indemnifications being calculated as the Money of the Country to which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at the Exchange current at the Time of the Award.

The Two High Contracting Parties wishing, however, to avoid, as much as possible, every Species of Error in the Execution of the Treaty of this Date, have agreed that if it should be proved in a Manner evident to the Conviction of the Judges of the Two Nations, and without having recourse to the Decision of an Arbitrator, that the Captor has been led into Error by a voluntary and reproachable Fault on the Part of the Captain of the detained Ship, in that Case only the detained Ship shall not have the Right of receiving, during the Days of her Detention, the Demurrage stipulated by the present Article.

Article IX.—The Two High Contracting Parties have agreed, that in the Event of the Death or legal Impediment of One or more of the Judges or Arbitrators composing the above mentioned Mixed Courts, their Posts shall be supplied, as follows, in the following Manner:

On the Part of the British Government, the Vacancies shall be filled successively, in the Court which shall at within the Possessions of His Britannic Majesty, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in that Colony, by the Principal Magistrate of the same, and by the Secretary; and in that which shall at within the Possessions of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, it is agreed, that in case of the Death of the British Judge or Arbitrator there, the surviving Individuals of the said Court shall proceed equally to the Judgment of such Ships as may be brought before them, and to the Execution of their Sentences.

Articles explanatory to the Treaty with the Netherlands, dated Dec. 11, 1824.

- 1 Articles explanatory of and additional to the Treaty concluded at the Hague, May the Fourth One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, between His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, for the Prevention of the Traffic in Slaves. Signed at Brussels December Thirtieth One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

1 His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, having thought fit to agree upon the following Arrangements, additional to and explanatory of the Treaty concluded between their aforesaid Majesties at the Hague, on the Fourth of May One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, for the Prevention of the Trade in Slaves, have therefore named as Plenipotentiaries, of the one—

1 His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Clancarty, Viscount Drogheda, Baron Aldrouce, Baron French of Garboldish in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, One of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in Great Britain, and also in Ireland, Member of the Committee of the First for the Affairs of Commerce and Colonies, Colonel of the Regiment of Militia of the County of Galway, Vice Admiral of the Province of Connaught, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of His said Majesty to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxembourg; and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Anne William Charles Baron de Nagel d'Empere, Member of the Body of Nobles of the Province of Gueldersland, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Belgic Lion, and of that of Charles the Third, of the Legion of Honour, and of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Chamberlain and Minister of State holding the Department of Foreign Affairs; who having exchanged their full Powers, and found in good and due Form, have agreed on the following explanatory and additional Articles:

1 Article I.—Whereas it is stated in Article I. of "Instructions intended for the British and Dutch Ships of War employed to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves," that "Ships on board of which no Slaves shall be found intended for Purposes of Traffic, shall not be detained on any Account or Pretence whatever." And Whereas it has been found by Experience, that Vessels employed on the illegal Traffic have unshipped their Slaves immediately prior to their being seized by Ships of War, and that such Vessels have thus found Means to evade Forfeiture, and have been enabled to pursue their unlawful Course with Impunity, contrary to the true Object and Spirit of the Treaty above mentioned.

1 The High Contracting Parties therefore find it necessary to declare, and it is hereby declared by them, that if there shall be clear and undoubted Proof that a Slave or Slaves has or have been put on board a Vessel, for the Purpose of illegal Traffic, in the particular Voyage on which the Vessel shall be captured, then and on that account, according to the true Intest and Meaning of the Stipulations of the Treaty, such Vessel shall be detained by the Cruisers, and finally condemned by the Commissioners.

1 Article II.—The High Contracting Parties hereby agree that, in the Event of the Absence, on account of Illness or of any other unavoidable Cause, of One or more of the Commissioners, Judges and Arbitrators, under the above mentioned Treaty, or in the Case of their Absence in Consequence of Leave from their Governments, duly notified to the Board of Commissioners sitting under the said Treaty, their Posts shall be supplied in the same Manner in which, by the Article Ninth of the Regulations for the Mixed Commissions, those Vacancies in the Commission are to be supplied which may occur by the Death of One or more of the Commissioners aforesaid.

1 The explanatory and additional Articles above mentioned shall be submitted to the Ratification of the respective Sovereigns, and shall have the same Force and Effect as if they were inserted Word for Word in the Treaty of the Fourth of May One thousand eight hundred and eighteen above mentioned, and shall be held to form Part of the same.

1 The Acts of Ratification shall be exchanged within the Space of One Month from this Date, or sooner, if possible.

1 In Witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Act, and thereunto affixed the Seal of their Arms.

Seventh—Having on board a greater Quantity of Men Tubbs or Kids than requisite for the Use of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel.

Eighth—Having on board Two or more Copper Banners, or even One of an unreasonable Size, larger than requisite for the Use of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel.

Ninth—Having on board an unreasonable Quantity of Rice or Butira, (Flour of the Name of the Brand or Casada), or Maize or Indian Corn, beyond any probable requisite Provision for the Use of her Crew; and such Rice, Flour, Maize or Indian Corn, not being entered on the Manifest as Part of the Cargo for Trade.

The Proof of these, or of any One or more of these several Indications, shall be considered as prima facie Evidence of her actual Employment in the Slave Trade, and unless rebutted by satisfactory Evidence upon the Part of the Master or Owners, that such Ship or Vessel was otherwise legally employed at the Time of Detention or Capture, the Ship or Vessel shall thereupon be condemned and declared lawful Prize.

The aforesaid additional Article shall be submitted to the Ratification of the respective Sovereigns, and shall have the same Force and Effect as if it was inserted Word for Word in the Treaty of the Fourth of May One thousand eight hundred and eighteen above mentioned, and shall be held to form Part of the same.

The Acts of Ratification shall be exchanged within the Space of One Month from this Date, or sooner if possible.
